TWO MONKEYS SURVIVE SPACE FLIGHT

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—Two monkeys returned alive today from a space ride in the nose cone of an Army missile. The Army announced that both monkeys were recovered alive from compartments in the nose cone of a Jupiter missile fired from Cape Canaveral. The rocket had climbed to an altitude of 300 miles and flown at speeds up to 10,000 m.p.h. The little female monkeys named Able and Baker are the first living creatures the United States has hurled into the farther reaches and brought back alive. The Russians claim to have brought back two dogs by parachute last August from a ride 281 miles out. And the U.S. Air Force in 1953 recovered two monkeys after firing them some 40 miles high over New Mexico. The feat represents a major breakthrough in the U.S. effort to put a man into orbital flight. Scientists said instruments attached to the monkeys showed they suffered little ill effect from the stresses of blast-off and the weird experience of weightlessness. Only the bare announcement that the monkeys survived was contained in the initial report received by the Army from a Navy ship which recovered the nose cone. This was near the island of Antigua 92 minutes after the Jupiter was fired. Technicians explained that the delay was the result of the need to undo a mechanical maze in opening the passenger compartment. It had been known previously, through radio signals from the nose cone, that the monkeys were alive and well one minute before their landing in the water. One important scientific check failed because of telemetry difficulties. Able had been trained in response tests to push a telegraph key at the flash of a red light in her capsule. The light was set to blink once each second during the flight. Medical scientists said Able became very proficient, in training, at responding. The scientists especially wanted to know how she responded in the period of weightlessness. That would be important in relation to what might be expected of men released from the gravitational pull of the earth. Instruments did record and relay information on heartbeat and breathing rate. The rescue operation was See MONKEYS, page 4

Sausalitans Sue To Halt Sandspit Lease

A group of Sausalito citizens went to court yesterday to stop the City of Sausalito from permitting a de luxe restaurant and shopping center on the 11-acre waterfront area known as the sandspit.

The Committee to Save the Sandspit, represented by San Rafael attorney Joseph G. Wilson, filed a suit in Marin Superior Court asking that the City of Sausalito be forced to do one of two things: Either repeal the action that permits the shopping center, or put the matter to a public vote.

HEARING SET

Judge N. Charles Brusatori set 2 p.m., June 8 as the time for Sausalito to show cause why it should not reconsider the sandspit lease. The Committee to Save the Sandspit, headed by chairman John F. O'Brien, has opposed efforts to permit commercial use of the narrow tongue of land which projects into the bay opposite the city hall.

The suit was filed in the name of Noel Martin of 61 Platt avenue against Amelie L. Smith, Sausalito city clerk, and members of the city council.

APPROVES SUBLEASE

After months of controversy, the council at its May 5 meeting passed a resolution approving a sublease by Madden and Lewis to a San Francisco firm headed by State Sen. J. Eugene McAtter which plans to build a restaurant and shops on the land.

O'Brien's group filed a petition protesting the council's action and called for a referendum vote by the people of Sausalito. But Sausalito City Atty. John B. Ehlen gave his opinion that the petition was without force and the council's action not subject to referendum.

Ike Meets Big 4 Ministers, Urges Progress At Geneva

WASHINGTON (UP) — President Eisenhower personally appealed to the Big Four foreign ministers today for progress at the deadlocked Geneva conference in order to justify a summit meeting.

The President conferred in his office for about a half hour with the foreign ministers and Russia's Andrei Gromyko said afterward that it was a "pleasant and useful conversation."

The White House said in a statement that the President had "expressed the hope that on their return to Geneva the foreign ministers would be able to achieve that measure of progress which would make a subsequent meeting of the heads of government desirable and useful."

The President said he had followed the Geneva conference proceedings with close attention.

"He expressed the hope that the thorough exchange of views that are taking place there would lead to a better approach to the solution of the problem that confronts us in Europe. He, of course, stressed the necessity of finding peaceful solutions to our problems. The President likewise expressed the hope that on their return to Geneva the foreign ministers would be able to achieve that measure of progress which would make a subsequent meeting of heads of government desirable and useful."

The Big Four foreign ministers had broken off their Geneva talks to attend the funeral of John Foster Dulles.

Meeting with Eisenhower were Gromyko, Secretary of State Christian A. Herter, British Foreign Minister Selwyn Lloyd and French Foreign Minister Maurice Couve de Murville.

IN JOVIAL MOOD

All appeared to be in jovial mood when they emerged.

White House press secretary James C. Hagerty reported that at the outset of the meeting the President expressed his thanks for the respect the visiting foreign ministers had shown to Dulles by flying here for the funeral.

Only the four foreign ministers were present for the conference with the President. Inasmuch as all spoke English, no interpreters were needed. There was no table-pounding demand by the President for Soviet acceptance of the Western proposals for a German settlement. Rather, Eisenhower was said to have enjoined the ministers that progress at Geneva was essential because the conference was the focal point of world attention.

PROGRESS NEEDED

Eisenhower was said to have made clear his view that there had to be progress at Geneva to warrant a summit meeting, and that it was up to the foreign ministers to move toward a solution of the German problem.

After the meeting ended, Gromyko was chosen by the foreign ministers as their spokesman. Lloyd told newsmen that the Soviet diplomat was "going to make a statement."

Smiling as newsmen jammed around him, Gromyko said: "We had a pleasant and useful meeting."

Two Marin Men Drown As Light Boat Capsizes

3rd Survives Tragedy In Petaluma Creek

A San Anselmo father of two and a San Rafael jewelry worker drowned last night in Petaluma Creek as their lightweight punt capsized at the start of a pigeon-hunting expedition.

The small boat flipped over in 15 feet of water in a turning basin just two blocks from the Petaluma downtown business section at about 9:30 p.m.

The two drowned just as another boat, occupied by two companion hunters, was heading toward them from the shore.

A third hunter in the overturned boat survived. Drowned were: Leonard Merz, 30, of Fremont road, San Rafael, a diamond setter for Gomez Manufacturing Co., San Francisco, and Edward (Red) Pettis of 57 Sierra avenue, San Anselmo.

Pettis, a welder for Steve Zappetini and Sons, San Rafael, is the father of two small girls. Pettis was considered a good swimmer. But friends said Merz could not swim.

William Muzinich of 106 Reservoir road, San Rafael, a plumbing contractor, was rowing the boat that tipped over. He was rescued by the hunters in the second boat.

Capt. Joseph Elwood of the Petaluma Fire Department, who was in the second boat, related:

"I was rowing our boat when we heard a splash. Ben (Ben Righetti of Petaluma) said, 'Oh my God! They've gone in the water.'"

"I rowed faster, but the only one we saw and heard was Bill (Muzinich). We got him and had him hang onto the boat and took him to a float. We went back to find Red and Merz, but they were gone. "They were right in the middle of the basin and we were 50 yards behind. We had gone back for a flashlight."

Merz, Pettis and Charles Nerviani of 1 Spruce road, Fairfax, met last evening at Muzinich's house for the outing. Pettis had borrowed a lightweight fiberglass punt. They went to Petaluma, where they met Righetti, who had borrowed another punt, and Elwood.

Deputies Hunt Rattlesnake, Mountain Lions

Dangerous animals were reported loose in two different parts of the county today.

Two mountain lions were seen roaming in the hills of Sleepy Hollow this morning, and a rattlesnake is loose in Novato, sheriff's deputies reported.

Deputy Sheriff Hugh Appell, armed with a shotgun, climbed the Sleepy Hollow hills near the old Raisch estate behind the home of Eric G. Lunn, 135 Crane drive, about 10 a.m., today looking for the lions. Sgt. Edward Myhaler of the sheriff's office said county trapper Beveridge Franklyn of Novato may be asked to track down the big cats with hounds.

Mrs. Lunn spotted the animals on a hill and called the sheriff about 9:40 a.m.

The rattlesnake was cornered by a 6-year-old Novato boy and his dog last night, but it got away before neighbors and officers arrived.

Mrs. Muriel Barbara Varnell of 451 Leisure lane said her son was in the back yard with his dog when the dog began barking. Mrs. Varnell went to investigate and saw the rattler. She estimated it was five feet long and two and one-half inches in diameter in the center.

Deputy Sheriff Harold Goerndt and neighbors searched the area without success.

Phone Rates Cut For 1,080 In Novato Area

A reduction in rates for 1,080 Novato telephone users, amounting to from 35 cents to $1.25 per month, has been put in effect by the Western California Telephone Co.

Ross Wright, manager, reported the lower rates have come about by eliminating a "mileage rate" within an expanded base rate area, granted by the state Public Utilities Commission, and by an automatic changeover to four-party lines for customers formerly with eight-party lines.

Private and two-party line customers within the enlarged base rate area are no longer charged the mileage rate, he said. Their rates are reduced according to how far distant they are from the main telephone plant at Diablo avenue and South Novato boulevard. Formerly they were charged an additional 35 cents per month for each quarter mile of distance beyond a much smaller zone surrounding the

Sparks Ignite Roof Of Home In Kentfield

Sparks rising from a living room fireplace caused a roof fire last night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. Mindle of 33 Cypress avenue, Kentfield.

Mindle, owner of the College Market in Kentfield, today estimated the combined fire and water damage at between $1,500 and $2,000.

The Kentfield Fire Department sent two trucks to the scene after Mindle reported the blaze by telephone at 11:40 p.m. The fire was brought under control in a matter of minutes. Mindle said it burned an area of some 50 square feet on the sloping roof. Walls and ceilings of the living room and kitchen were damaged by water.

Two vintage cars in Mindle's garage were undamaged. They are a 1912 Overland touring car and a 1915 Model T Ford. Mindle lauded the work of Kentfield Fire Chief John R. McLeran and his men. He said they used the minimum amount of water necessary to put out the fire.

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Fair weather with slightly higher temperatures inland is the forecast through tomorrow for California.

There will be patches of morning high fog near the coast.

Winds of 12 to 25 miles an hour on the coast and 8 to 15 m.p.h. in the interior valleys were predicted.

"He pulled me under a couple of times. The whole thing happened in a couple of minutes. I saw him going down and I kept yelling for help. Lennie tried to yell, too. But only his mouth moved. I didn't hear Red say anything."

"Thirty seconds later and I would have gone down myself. I saw the other boat coming and thought, 'Thank God.' Once I asked Red to give me a hand with Lennie."

TO SAVE DOWNTOWN

Symbol Of Suburb In City's Heart

ROCHESTER, N. Y. (AP)—A shopping center, symbol of the suburb, is going up in the heart of downtown Rochester.

Midtown Shopping Plaza, an architect's dream and a shopper's delight, will replace 10 acres of parking lots, dilapidated buildings and dingy alleys.

This is "urban redevelopment," but not the kind that needs a government subsidy. The owners of two of Rochester's largest retail stores, although competitors, have joined forces to wage 20 million dollars of their own money that Midtown will help stop the flight of business to the suburbs.

Besides sprucing up the downtown area, Midtown will provide the city of 340,000 with free space underground for a garage to help solve the city's parking problems.

Here's what the plans call for:

Underground parking on three ramps for almost 2,000 cars.

Escalators to the surface.

About 30 stores on an enclosed mall, as big as a football field, heated in winter and cooled in summer.

An office building at least 10 stories high.

A bus terminal for city and suburban lines.

And, of course, entrances to the two stores that are building Midtown—McCurdy's department store, the second-largest in the city, and Forman's specialty store for women, the fourth-largest retailer.

The city expects to spend about 17 million dollars to build the underground garage and to extend a multi-lane expressway across the middle of downtown and along one edge of Midtown.

Work began early in April. Part of the garage will be open next year and the plaza is expected to be completed in five years.

The idea for Midtown was born three years ago when McCurdy's and Forman's—worried about the flight of shoppers to the suburbs—called in architects Victor Gruen and Associates to design a parking garage. The architect suggested Midtown instead.

McCurdy and Forman met privately with the city manager, drew up plans, started buying property quietly and then unveiled the last project before the city council last fall.

Robert P. Aex, city manager, is convinced that private enterprise projects like Midtown are the answer to big-city decay.

"For the city," he says, "the key is the triple use of land."

"Parking is one of our biggest problems downtown. When the city builds a ramp garage, it has to buy the land, take it off the tax rolls and then build a garage that produces no profit.

"But look what happens when the city and private enterprise cooperate:

"First, the city gets the underground rights free of charge. The stores are as happy to get the parking as we are to get the space.

"Second, the surface land stays on the tax rolls.

"Third, private enterprise improves the property, which increases in value and returns more taxes to the city."

Aex says Midtown could be the spark for a face-lifting of the whole downtown area—a new hotel, apartment housing, more store remodeling.

"Once you have something like Midtown as a starter," he says, "spreading his hands, 'it just grows and grows.'"

School Survey Results To Be Disclosed

Results of a public opinion survey conducted in the Mill Valley School District this spring will be disclosed at a public meeting next Thursday at 8 p.m. in Old Mill School, according to survey chairman William E. Casterson.

Results have been tabulated by UNIVAC, Casterson said.

He disclosed that 444 residents answered the multiple-choice questions on the district's elementary education program and that 203 of the questionnaires contained additional voluntary remarks.

Casterson said Donald Kase will explain the validity and reliability of the survey and that Earl Reinke will give the results of questions pertaining to curriculum. Mrs. Henry Wach will present the tabulation on teachers and how children are taught. Mrs. J. V. Hawley will present material on special services and board policies. Mrs. W. S. Gavin, president of the Mill Valley Advisory Education Council, will give the survey's results relative to school finances. There will be a question and answer period following the presentation.

Education Held Answer To Plastic Bag Peril

Deaths of small children attributed to asphyxiation by plastic bags prompted today's panel discussion over radio station KTIM on the question: "Should dry cleaning establishments do away with plastic bags?"

Two mothers of pre-school age children differed. Mrs. James Pack of 353 West Baltimore avenue, Larkspur, advocated taking plastic bags off the market until they are made safer—if they can be. Mrs. Robert Mertle of 12 Tarrant court, San Rafael, said she thought "education, not legislation" was the answer.

John Brunner, San Rafael dry cleaner, reported that during the past two weeks customers have been asked if they want a plastic bag or a paper bag. Only four persons asked for paper covers, he said.

Warning tags will be affixed to the plastic bags, Brunner said. He added, "The customer actually is the boss."

William Schueler of Kordite Corp., San Francisco, which manufactures plastic bags, said a nationwide information campaign has begun.

"We're not trying to avoid the issue," Schueler said. One warning is against use of the plastic bags as crib mattress covers.

The program, "Marin Sounding Board," moderated by Kitty Oppenheimer, will be repeated by tape-recording at 12:30 p.m. Sunday.

Schueler quoted National Safety Council statistics that 27 deaths of infants in the United States had been attributed to asphyxiation caused by plastic bags. Two of these deaths were in California. Schueler said 200 million plastic bags were in use each year in California by dry cleaning establishments.

Static electricity of the plastic bags has been blamed in most deaths. The light-weight plastic film has stuck to a child's nose and mouth, preventing him from breathing.

Schueler said his industry felt a "positive de-stifier" could be developed. He acknowledged that static electricity is picked up by the plastic bags after they leave the factory.

A listener asked: "Wouldn't use of a heavier gauge plastic reduce the bag's adhering properties?"

Schueler said it could. Brunner said cost of a heavier plastic bag "might be prohibitive." plastic bags cost three and one-half cents each and paper bags five cents each. Customers like the plastic bags because the garment is visible through it, Brunner said.

Mrs. Pack, mother of two boys, Sander, 5, and David, 2, said the plastic bags should be taken off the market and "re-engineered" for safety. She suggested perforating them with small holes.

Schueler, asked for his comment of this idea, said the bag would not longer protect the clean garment so well, especially against rain. He said the bag's purpose was to get the garment home still clean. He said it was safe to destroy the bag by burning it.

Mrs. Mertle, who has two daughters, Kerry, 6, and Piper, 1, and a son, Don, 4, commented that "small children have to be watched all the time," she said "mothers finding out about accidents" was the most important factor in preventing them.

The total cost of all accidents in the United States in 1956 is equal to the total number of dollars in Social Security benefits paid in 1953, 1954 and 1955.

BODY BROUGHT TO SHORE — Petaluma firemen pull in boat bearing body of one of two victims of drowning in Petaluma Creek last night. Leonard

DROWNINGS

was to hunt pigeons to train hunting dogs.

Elwood said they carried fishing nets and flashlights and cages in the boats. Their aim was to capture the sleeping birds from pilings along the canal.

HOW BIRDS USED

The birds were to be placed in cages and taken home. Elwood said the birds were to be used in the field in this manner: A bird's head would be placed under one wing and the bird would be spun around to make it dizzy. It would be placed in a field and young dog would be sent to learn to point. Later the bird would be sent into the air, shot and the dog would learn to retrieve.

Re counting the night's events, Elwood said:

"We put the boats into the water at the same time and started out together. But it was so dark I decided we needed another flashlight. We went back and yelled to Nerviani, who had stayed ashore. He went to the truck and got a flashlight and we started back.

LIGHTS ON WATER

"He handed Ben the flashlight and I rowed. We were about 50 yards from them when we heard the splash. Nerviani drove to the fire station about two blocks away and by the time we reached the capsize boat the fire trucks had arrived. They put lights on the water.

"Later they dragged the water. It's about 15 feet deep there, but calm. At about 11 p.m. they brought them up."

Merz and Muzinich had been hunting companions for years.

Mrs. Josephine Steele, Novato widow living at 1024 Machin street, is suing for $50,000 damages for injuries she claims she suffered on the opening day of Rayburns' market last Jan. 31.

San Anselmo attorney Charles W. Pierce filed the suit today in Marin Superior Court against Andrew Rayburn, owner of the market.

Mrs. Steele contends she was a customer at the market, which was filled with people. She fell over a low box that protruded into the aisle, twisting herself and injuring her neck, spine and back, according to attorney Pierce.

Comedian Winters To Leave Sanitarium

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Comedian Jonathan Winters, who suffered an emotional upset two weeks ago, plans to leave late today for his home in Mamaroneck, N. Y., according to friends.

The 32-year-old night club and television performer has been at Twin Pines Sanitarium in nearby Belmont since he was taken into custody by police for acting irrationally on the San Francisco waterfront on May 12.

They both belonged to the New Albion Gun Club at Pt. Reyes. "We hunted together about 10 years," Muzinich said.

HEAVY BOOTS

All the hunters were wearing heavy boots and jackets. Muzinich said he was trying to get his off and stay above water, but the weight of the clothing made it difficult to move.

Rex Fowler, a co-worker with Pettis at Zappetinis, went to the Pettis home today to comfort Pettis' wife, Lanora. Fowler said he had worked with Pettis for years and, being a bachelor, usually had dinner with the Pettis once a week.

"He was an active man," Fowler said, "and liked sports." He added that Pettis was a good swimmer.

"Red was a native of Marin and had lived around here all his life," he said.

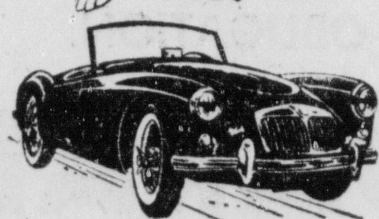

Pettis also is survived by two daughters, Paulette, 7, and Marcella, 4. Funeral arrangements are pending at the Harry M. Williams Mortuary, San Rafael.

LIST OF SURVIVORS

Merz is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Merz Sr., with whom he lived; three brothers, Raymond, a San Francisco contractor and Frank Jr. and Harry, contractors in Marin; and three sisters, Lorraine Merz of Wiesbaden, Germany; Mrs. John T. ## 'Untrained Surgeons Doing Operations'

NEW YORK (AP)—Dr. Paul R. Hawley, director of the American College of Surgeons, says it is reliably estimated that one half of the surgical operations in the United States are now performed by "doctors who are untrained, or inadequately trained, to undertake surgery."

He says inadequately trained physicians are doing an increasing amount of surgery because every insured patient is a paying patient.

Hawley made the statements at a session of the Group Health Institute yesterday.

He said one of the world's most distinguished surgeons told him that at least half his practice now "consists of attempts to correct the bad results of surgery undertaken in community hospitals by doctors inadequately trained in this field." He did not name the surgeon.

Hawley said the existing plans combining prepayment with group medical practice provide medical care of high quality.

He said, however, that nationwide extension of such plans could be dangerous "unless equal high quality of care could be assured."

Hawley said the success of the plans now existing is due to their ability to select the physicians who give the medical care.

Slayer Of 2 Scheduled To Die Tomorrow

Vender Lee Duncan, who lost his executive clemency plea last week, is scheduled to go to the gas chamber in San Quentin Prison at 10 a.m. tomorrow.

Duncan was found guilty in 1955 of the rape-robbery-murders of two elderly San Francisco women. His clemency plea was based on the fact that the murders were "passion killings" and not premeditated slayings.

Waldo F. Postel Jr., attorney for Duncan, also asked for a "study of the sanity" of Duncan. Gov. Edmund G. Brown said he saw no reason to set aside the judgment of the court. Psychiatric reports submitted to the governor held that Duncan is sane.

Watch Glasses While Driving

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Motorists' use of eyeglasses with extra large sidebars was outlawed yesterday by Gov. Edmund G. Brown's signature.

He signed a bill by Sen. James A. Cobey (D-Merced) forbidding drivers from using glasses which obscure side view.

Cobey said his main objection is to certain types of sunglasses.

Bud Abbott Says He's Broke, Blames Taxes

HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—Bud Abbott, straight man of the Abbott and Costello comedy team, said today a government tax audit has left him broke.

"And all my so-called pals suddenly don't know me any more now that the booze has stopped flowing," the 63-year-old star said at his home, which is up for sale to help pay the taxes.

"The government took it all but peanuts. The thing that did it was when they disallowed a half million dollars of deductions. Then they put a lien on practically everything."

Abbott, white-haired, shorn of his mustache and heavier than in the days of his great successes, said in his rumpled room:

"One tax guy asked me, 'Where do you get off wearing $25 shoes? I pay $9 for mine.' I answered, 'I make so much a week. How much do you make?' So he said, 'Well, I'll allow you half.' He went down the line and picked out half a million. He said I gave too many gifts to friends—friends, ha!—and that I spent too much money by having a chauffeur."

"I'm at a terrible disadvantage without the chauffeur. I don't drive, and Mrs. Abbott don't drive. I can't get off the property unless a friend comes, and the friends don't come because the booze don't flow."

"I was told people are like that, but I didn't believe it. Sometimes I laugh at myself when I think of the $100 bills I handed out to guys who needed a touch."

Abbott said his former partner, Lou Costello, who died last March 3, also lost a great deal in the audit, which covered a seven-year period.

Beauticians Can't Work Overtime

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Ladies, you'll just have to get your hair cut or dyed within the limits of the eight-hour day.

The Assembly has rejected by a vote of 29-24 a bill by Assemblyman Carlos Bee (D-Hayward) to let women cosmetologists and beauticians work more than eight hours a day to finish up the job in progress.

Killian Quits As Science Aide To Ike

WASHINGTON (AP)—The White House announced today the resignation of Dr. James R. Killian Jr. as special assistant to the President for science and technology.

Killian will return to the presidency of Massachusetts Institute of Technology from which he was on leave.

Dr. George Bogdan Kostia-kowsky, professor of chemistry at Harvard University, was chosen by President Eisenhower to succeed Killian. He is a native of Kiev, Russia.

In an exchange of letters made public by the White House, Killian said he wishes to return to MIT by mid-July.

He said he was resigning for "compelling personal reasons" about which, he said, the President has had a warm understanding. There was no amplification.

Drunken Driver Given $300 Fine

A naval architect and marine engineer from San Francisco, caught driving while drunk south of Hamilton Air Force Base, must pay a $300 fine.

Arthur Lloyd Sipes Jr., 35, of San Francisco was found guilty of drunken driving yesterday after a two-day jury trial. Asst. Dist. Atty. Roger Garety prosecuted the case.

Highway patrolmen found Sipes weaving along Highway 101 last Christmas Eve.

Judge Richard M. Sims of Marin Municipal Court fined Sipes and put him on 90 days probation.

San Anselmo School Budget Approved

The five trustees of the San Anselmo School District last night passed with minor modifications a $720,000 budget for 1959-60, and postponed action on teachers' salaries until their June 10 meeting, when state allocations should be known, reported Supt. Harold R. DePue.

The trustees, reversing an earlier 3-2 decision, voted 4-1 (with Trustee W. P. Duhamel dissenting) to hire a guidance consultant for two days a week, replacing a contracted service with the county superintendent's office.

The psychologist, who will begin July 1, is William Berzman of Terra Linda, now working in the Kentfield District under a county contract, said DePue. Next year he will spend three days a week in the Kentfield District.

Dixie School Board Hires Coordinator

Trustees of Dixie School District last night confirmed employment next year of Robin Briscoe as a curriculum coordinator, after receiving word from San Jose School District that it would contract for her services two days a week.

Miss Briscoe currently performs the same service for the districts under a contract with the county school superintendent's office.

Five new teachers were hired last night by the Dixie school board: Mrs. Sydney Eschen, a June graduate of San Jose State College, probably to teach third grade at Hoffman School; Mrs. Betty Taylor, Pittsburgh teacher, for third or fourth grade at Silveira School; Miss Pauline Schmidt, a June graduate of San Francisco State College at Santa Rosa, first grade at Santa Margarita School; Mrs. Frances Hughes, Castro Valley teacher, first grade at Lucas Valley School to open in September, and Miss Priscilla Wildish, former Wisconsin teacher, fourth grade at Silveira School.

SUMMER SESSION
The trustees hired 14 teachers and two secretaries at a total salary cost of $6,500 for the five-week summer session to begin June 29. Children in fourth grade up will meet at Santa Margarita and Silveira schools. Hoffman School will have next year's primary youngsters only.

The three board members present, chairman E. E. Lender, clerk Walter J. Doll and trustee Marcus W. Savage, authorized the architectural firm of John Lyon Reid and Partners in San Francisco to proceed with plans for three projects: Additional classrooms at the Lucas Valley School, additional classrooms at the 7th and 8th grade Terra Linda School, to open January, 1960, and a multi-use room at Silveira School.

The board authorized $1,000 for materials and $900 for office equipment to expand the Dixie district office at 4775 Redwood highway.

TRASH HAULING
The trustees voted to have trash hauled away from the district's four schools, estimated to cost $2,000, rather than burning it, with a $500 budget allowance for disposal of ashes. The decision eliminates need for an incinerator at the new Lucas Valley School, reported Joseph B. Goff, district administrative assistant.

The board adopted a 1959-60 school year calendar of 181 days from Sept. 10 to June 17. The trustees discussed plans for the Marinwood shopping center with David Van Pelt of the Marin County Planning Commission.

Administrators Of Schools Elect

Anthony Bacich, principal of Kent School in Kentfield, was elected new president of the Marin County School Administrators Assn. at a dinner meeting last evening at Sabel's in Alto.

Henry Smith, principal of Santa Margarita School in Dixie District, was elected vice president; Robert R. Royle, director of adult classes for San Rafael High School, secretary, and Charles W. Lavaroni, principal of Olive School, Novato, treasurer.

More than 50 members attending the dinner meeting heard Dan Dawson, executive secretary of the California Elementary School Administrators Assn., describe the advantages of the organization for school principals.

Bail Bondsman Hearing Put Off To Sept 14

The hearing into charges that Marin bail bondsman James J. Shelley tried to influence Marin sheriff's office members has been continued until Sept. 14.

Shelley testified yesterday afternoon before Harold Furst in San Francisco in a State Insurance Commission hearing.

Shelley, who has been charged with offering whisky and money to six jailers after he entered the business in 1957, testified that James Stragnola, also a bail bondsman, threatened him. He said the jailers ignored him, and his acts of generosity were mistaken for bribes.

He said Stragnola threatened to "frame" him.

He said he never offered money to two jailers, but did offer a bottle of whisky to a third jailer on Christmas Eve, 1957 "in the spirit of Christmas."

Shelley also testified that he gave two policemen a dollar "because it was an ungodly hot day and I had made them work overtime and I wanted them to have a beer on me."

He asserted he did not remember putting five $10 bills in a book that he took to the jail. "I may have hidden the money after an evening of frivolity... because I have a wife who is a pocket robber." Sheriff Louis P. Mountanos said Shelley had "a lot of respect for me and I had a lot for him." The hearing was continued until Stragnola can return from Europe to testify.

TWO-THIRDS OF U.S. FAILS TO AID CHARITY

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Two-thirds of America doesn't give to charity, a spokesman for the National Foundation said yesterday. Fund raisers have barely scratched the surface, added Melvin A. Glasser.

The foundation's executive vice president, speaking to the National Conference on Social Welfare, disputed assertions that fund-raising has reached the limit for welfare use. He said such reasoning also ignores the increase in national wealth and the historic trend toward ever-increasing contributions.

Folded Flag, Small Marker Put Period To Dulles' Mortal Record

WASHINGTON (UPI) — An Army bugler sent the sad notes of "Taps" out over the wooded hills of Arlington National Cemetery.

A slight woman, her mournful face covered by a filmy black veil that rippled in the light breeze, held out her arms. A clergyman stepped forward and gently handed her an American flag folded in a trim triangle.

The flag came from the casket of John Foster Dulles. The woman who received it yesterday was his wife, who had ranged the world with the fallen secretary of state as he hustled from country to country in quest of peace.

President Eisenhower, as somber as his friends had ever seen him, moved to her side, placed his hand on her shoulder and whispered what comfort he could.

Mrs. Eisenhower followed her husband and put both arms

The Eisenhowers slipped quickly through the crowd. Mrs. Dulles could have received condolences for an hour from the notables of the world.

But the widow wanted no more of public mourning. She walked with her sons and daughter to the family limousine and quickly departed.

With the family gone, the burial experts of Arlington Cemetery went about their business efficiently. At 4:27, Mrs. Dulles left; at 4:31 the casket was lowered into the grave. A heavy bronze lid for the outer coffin cover was brought in on a crane and lowered in place.

A dump truck backed up to the grave and cascaded a shower of red dirt on the coffin. A cemetery official walked to the head of the grave and stuck a small printed marker into the soft earth. On it was the legend, "Lot 31, John Foster Dulles, May 27, 1959."

Thus ended the mortal record of John Foster Dulles, who went to the grave a fallen hero of his battle for peace. It was a curious day in many ways. Standing 30 feet from the grave, apart from the foreign ministers of the West, was one of Dulles' chief adversaries of the cold war, Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko of Russia.

Yesterday was the day when Gromyko's boss, Nikita Khrushchev, had originally planned to throw the world into turmoil by pushing the Allies out of West Berlin. The deadline was put aside, due in part to the negotiations Dulles conducted before his death.

If any emotion flickered through Gromyko's mind, he kept it masked.

$399.8 Million Defense Cut By House Unit

WASHINGTON (UPI) — With a blast at Pentagon rivalries, "confusion and duplication," the House Appropriations Committee today recommended $38,848,339,000 in new funds for the Defense Department.

In cutting $399,861,000 from the amount requested by President Eisenhower for the year starting July 1, the committee told the Army and the Air Force to cease bickering over who has the best missiles, called for a general tightening up on defense operations, and spoke of a growing Soviet military threat.

SIDES WITH ARMY
On the face of its action, it sided with the Army in its missile war with the Air Force by boosting Army funds and cutting Air Force money for missiles.

It approved funds to strengthen the Strategic Air Command, to shore up the Navy's anti-submarine warfare program, and to expedite work on atomic airplanes.

It disapproved the President's plans to reduce the strength of the National Guard and the reserve forces, but went along with his figures for active military manpower.

NO CARRIER FUNDS
It refused the Navy's request for 260 million dollars to build a new aircraft carrier.

It voted to authorize the President to keep bombers in the air around the clock if necessary to prevent their destruction on the ground by a sneak attack.

These and other actions were included in a bill the committee sent to the House floor for debate next week.

REAL BERLIN TEST PREDICTED IN '61

Western Officials Believe Khrushchev Hopes Time Will Work In His Favor

By BRACK CURRY
GENEVA (UPI) — Some Western officials believe the real Berlin crisis will come in 1961, not this year or the next.

They believe the Soviets will accept some stopgap agreement at the Big Four foreign ministers' conference that will continue the uneasy allied occupation of West Berlin.

Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev, in their view, hopes that national elections in Britain, the United States and West Germany will bring in new administrations that will weaken or shatter the united allied front on German issues.

Should Socialist governments replace the present Conservative administrations in Britain this year or next and in West Germany in 1961, far-reaching changes would most likely result in foreign policies of those two nations.

A Democratic administration in Washington in 1961 probably would change U.S. foreign policy little, but it might change it some.

The reasoning of these officials is that Khrushchev will not risk an armed clash over Berlin at this time.

Khrushchev's November ultimatum to the Big Three to get out of West Berlin in six months is considered by these officials as primarily a probing action to test the unity of the allies.

They stress that the Soviet leader, confronted with a phalanx of allied determination to remain in the divided city, scrapped his deadline. In return, he got the virtual promise of the summit meeting he apparently wants so badly.

Solons Urge More Cancer Study Funds

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Two senators today urged Congress to enact a broader program of cancer research as a "fitting memorial" to John Foster Dulles.

The Dulles memorial was proposed by Sen. Richard L. Neuberger (D-Ore.) who has had a cancer operation. He testified at a Senate appropriations subcommittee hearing saying an expansion of cancer research funds from 75 to 109 million dollars would be aimed at "vanquishing the disease which took his life."

Subcommittee Chairman Lister Hill (D-Ala.) endorsed Neuberger's proposal.

Bank Clerks Battle Police In Argentine Labor Strife

BUENOS AIRES (UPI) — Striking bank clerks clashed with police and thousands of railwaymen challenged troops trying to force them to work as Argentina seethed today with industrial strife.

President Arturo Frondizi called out troops with tanks and machine guns to patrol the railway center of Junin, 150 miles west of the capital.

Union leaders claimed up to 90 per cent of the employees in state-run banks had defied the government ultimatum to end their seven-week strike or lose their jobs. The deadline was last Friday.

Further labor trouble threatened. Electric power workers got ready to walk out unless the government kept a promise to increase salaries.

Ike Wants To Know Which Missile's Best

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Eisenhower reportedly wants a quick Pentagon recommendation on whether to keep the Nike-Hercules or Bomarc missiles—or both—as anti-aircraft weapons.

Senate sources who reported this today said the President had instructed Secretary of Defense Neil H. McElroy to back up his recommendation with solid evidence.

A major row over the nation's aerial defense weapons has been going on for some time. It centers around claims by the Army and Air Force that each has a superior missile for shooting down attacking aircraft.

The Pentagon has not yet come up with an answer as to which claim is correct.

The Army is backing its short range Nike-Hercules missile, now a mainstay of the aerial continental defenses. The Air Force is pushing its Bomarc, a missile with a range described as something over 400 miles.

Congressional critics have charged that there is costly waste in developing the two missiles as rivals in the air defense program.

Capt. John Smith didn't begin his colorful career at Jamestown, Va. At the age of 20 he commanded 250 horsemen during the Christian-Turkish war in Hungary.

HUSBAND SENT HOME

Soviet Envoy's Wife Asks For Asylum In Britain

LONDON (UPI) — The British government today pondered the plea of a Soviet naval attaché's wife for asylum for herself and small daughter to escape Soviet security men who rushed her husband back to Moscow under guard.

Mrs. Nina Dmitriev, 35, and her 5-year-old daughter, Lena, hid out with White Russian friends in London under the protection of Scotland Yard until her request is decided.

British officials said the plea was being considered on its merits.

Mrs. Dmitriev showed up at the Foreign Office yesterday and agreed to meet with Soviet Embassy agents who had been trying to track her down for four days. At the interview—in the presence of British officials—the embassy men failed to talk her into going with them.

Soviet security men rushed her husband, Capt. Aleksander Dmitriev, 38, out of London on a jet airliner bound for Moscow.

Just before Dmitriev, an assistant Soviet naval attaché, boarded the plane British Home Office officials asked him whether he wanted to stay in Britain. "I wish to leave for Moscow," he replied.

Dmitriev, who speaks good English, knows Britain well. He worked in the Soviet embassy in London for a time shortly after World War II and only recently returned as assistant naval attaché.

On Saturday he went with two other embassy officials to a country estate the embassy maintains in Kent.

Mrs. Dmitriev, who knows scarcely any English, told neighbors she and their daughter were joining the captain on Sunday. Instead she went into hiding.

Novato Election Necessitates Hospital Expansion Restudy

The will of Novato's 5,138 voters was expressed Tuesday on the question of withdrawing from the Marin County Hospital District, operating agency for Marin General Hospital.

Novato voted to get out of the district. One curious aspect of the expression of will was that only 748 voters actually cast their ballots in favor of secession. So the votes of a small minority actually determined the course of events for a sizeable population.

Another 409 voters cast ballots; they voted in favor of remaining in the hospital district.

Thus, only 1,157 of Novato's 5,138 eligible electors bothered to cast their votes Tuesday.

The light vote confirmed an earlier survey by the Independent-Journal, indicating that few Novatans had studied the question carefully or were much interested in it one way or the other.

The consensus seemed to be that Novato would have a better chance of getting a hospital in North Marin sooner by getting out of the district.

What effect does Novato's withdrawal have on the rest of us?

The tax base for any future expansion of Marin General will be smaller; the tax rate for any new bond issue would have to be higher if the expansion remained the same size.

If and when a new addition is built at Marin General, a sprinkling of Novato residents will unquestionably avail themselves of its accessibility, enjoying the use of the expanded facilities without having had to participate in the tax costs of adding them. But they will have to pay a higher room rate than anybody living in the district. And they still must pay taxes for redemption of the presently outstanding bonds.

The population which Marin General is to serve will henceforth be smaller, owing to the withdrawal of the Novato area. Actual relief may be felt if and when Novato gets its own North Marin hospital, accommodating patients who might otherwise have to be cared for in Marin General.

It seems to us appropriate that Marin General carefully review its expansion plans in light of Novato developments, before submitting expansion bonds to the public for the third time.

What's Happening To Legs?

In the distant future several generations from now we can see a time when our descendants will have only feeble stubs for legs—just strong enough to carry them from their easy chairs to their atomic cars. If there is anything to the theory of evolution, legs are doomed to become vestiges. They're no longer needed.

What provoked this line of thought was a recent experience at the cleaners. We drove up to the door and were greeted by a sign, "Remain in your car! Our attendant will serve you." A bronzed young lady in a green and white uniform took the clothes from us while we gawked in amazement.

We've had drive-in movies, banks and eateries some time now. Who knows what's next? And in the meantime, legs are selling at a great discount.

But don't get us wrong. We like to be waited on as much as the next fellow and we welcome each new service. We won't be overly concerned if legs are rendered useless.

In Norfolk, Many Teen-Agers Went To Night School To Earn Diplomas

By RELMAN MORIN
For Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP)—The white card, embossed with a gold coat-of-arms, announced the date of graduation exercises for a high school in Virginia.

Inside, a smaller card bore the name, James D. Ream Jr. Well, June is at hand. June is the month when, all over America, the high school band plays "Pomp and Circumstance," and the seniors step up for diplomas.

These cards, however, represent something unusual.

On a chilly night last December, I crossed the bridge into South Norfolk, Va., and found the Oscar F. Smith High School. Lights burned in the classrooms, the study halls, the auditorium, the library. The grounds outside were quiet and the halls deserted.

It was a little after 8 p.m. There was an air of purpose about this school.

It was a night high school.

The pupils all came from near by Norfolk, where the regular schools had been closed in the dispute over federal court orders to integrate. In South Norfolk, authorities offered their facilities—at night—for all who wanted to use them.

Nearly 800 boys and girls did.

They had started at 4 in the afternoon, taken a half-hour break at 5:45, and gone back to work. The final bell would ring at 9 o'clock.

No truant officer compelled them to be in school.

E. E. Brickell, the principal—whose own hours at that time were from 8 a.m. to 11 p.m.—said attendance was running better than 95 per cent. Disciplinary problems? Practically none. And grades? Above average.

I asked if I could talk with some of the pupils.

He called in a pretty, serious-faced girl, Adelia Watson; and a tall, lean, clean-cut boy,

Jim Ream. Both were seniors, both 17. Both hoped to go to college. Adelia Watson said she wanted to study interior decorating. Jim Ream grinned said he expected to be an engineer.

Was it much of an adjustment to go to school at night? "Not too bad," said Jim Ream. "It's better in some ways. You can do your homework in the morning this way, while you're fresh."

Adelia Watson said she found it easier to study in the daytime, too.

YES, THEY MISSED the sports, the social life, the extra-curricular activities that go to making the high school years some of the best in an American kid's life.

"But I guess nothing is too much to pay for an education," said Jim Ream. "It's worth it."

WHEN JIM REAM'S card came the other day, announcing graduation day, I thought of him and Adelia Watson and hundreds of bright-looking intent boys and girls in the classrooms that night.

So here's a salute to you, Jim Ream, and to you, Adelia Watson, and all your friends in the class of 1959. You're getting a special diploma in a few weeks.

And all of you are mighty special too, in my book.

Native Sons Had Best Convention

EDITOR, Independent-Journal:

As our state convention—the 82nd Grand Parlor of the Native Sons of the Golden West—draws to a close, I wish to thank you and the staff of the Independent-Journal for your outstanding coverage of our Grand Parlor.

According to all of the delegates and guests in attendance, without exception, this has been as fine a Grand Parlor as any can recall, and this includes the memory of some of our members who have been attending state conventions for over 50 years.

I know that our entire membership in Marin County agrees with me that a substantial portion of the success of this convention is due to the wonderful cooperation that we have received from the Independent-Journal.

We have also been privileged to receive the greatest cooperation from the San Rafael Chamber of Commerce, the Marin Development Foundation, and all of the officials who had anything to do with this convention, including Chairman of the Board of Supervisors Walter Castro, Sheriff Louis Montanos, and San Rafael Chief of Police Charles Chiesa.

I feel confident that with the reception the delegates received in Marin County, other statewide organizations will certainly be encouraged to seriously consider Marin as the site for future state conventions.

TRY AND STOP ME

BENNETT CERF

A business man who liked to spend many evenings and weekends with male companions suddenly realized he hadn't been giving his wife a fair shake, so he impulsively bought her a dozen American Beauty roses and a 5-pound box of candy. When he presented them to her, she burst into tears. "This is the last straw," she sobbed. "First the cook quit, then Johnny broke his arm, and now you come home drunk!"

Romantics were distressed when a Hollywood couple split up after 40 long years. She finally became convinced he wouldn't marry her.

THERE IS STILL no evidence that the Republican party is inheriting any of Mr. Eisenhower's popularity. While the President has been gaining 9 per cent since November, the Republican party has lost 2½ per cent since its low point of 43.5 in the last election.

This leaves one conclusion at least: the popularity of the Democratic party does not insure the election of a Democratic President and the unpopularity of the Republican party does not prevent the election of a Republican President.

Fairfax-Style 'Justice' Wends Secret And Devious Way For Robbed Widow

Police investigation in Fairfax to all outward appearances is a mighty mysterious business.

On Feb. 2 a basement strong box was discovered cracked open and its contents missing: stocks of banks, of Pacific Gas and Electric Co., and Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co., and legal papers, plus 500 silver dollars.

The homemade safe had reposed in the basement of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Regalia at 102 Willow avenue, Fairfax. They are owners of Victor's Machine Shop in San Rafael.

The silver dollars had been saved by the Regalias for a vacation and the stocks and legal papers belonged to Regalia's mother, Mrs. Josephine Regalia of 84 Willow avenue, the family reported.

Police Chief Andy J. Peri began investigating but was unable to turn up any good leads.

THEN ON April 1, two months after the burglary was reported, Capt. Clifton Cordes announced that the stocks had been recovered. He refused to tell how or from whom. Any such information would have to wait until Chief Peri returned from a seven-week vacation in Mexico, the captain said.

Aside from the fact that the 500 silver dollars were still missing, mystery deepened over the value of the stocks involved.

The Regalias had reported $2,200 missing. But when the stocks were returned they totaled up to $35,000 in value.

THIS MINOR mystery was cleared up when Chief Peri learned that the smaller amount was reported so that no nosy neighbors could speculate on the income received by the elder Mrs. Regalia.

In fact, the Regalia family was so pleased with the whole outcome of the affair that they sent a letter of thanks for Chief Peri to the Fairfax City Council.

TO THIS DAY, Chief Peri has steadfastly refused to disclose the name of the person who said he found the stocks. "The man does not want his name mentioned at all. We're respecting his wishes in hopes he may know more and tell us more," Chief Peri said.

This particular man claims that he noticed the stocks under a tree when he was on a painting job, Peri said. At first he thought they were garbage (the recovered stocks did look rather moldy around the edges). The man turned them over to deputy sheriff who was a friend of his and the deputy sheriff delivered them to Captain Cordes.

At first Chief Peri said he was trying to make a date with Donald Midyett, the district attorney's investigator, to give this man a lie detector test.

"Don Midyett doesn't think this fellow is a good suspect," said Chief Peri this week when asked if he had ever been given the promised lie detector test.

MIDYETT, WHEN telephoned, acknowledged he had described the man as an unlikely suspect not from his own knowledge but "from what Andy said." Midyett said he did not know the person's name but he had "an idea who the person is."

"I'm waiting for the go-ahead from Andy to make a lie detector date," said Midyett.

And there rests the case of the widow's legacy. At least she got it back.

County Fair Funds Safe For Two Years As Reform Move Dies

SACRAMENTO (CNS)—Any hopes for fiscal or administrative reforms in the nearly $10 million a year program of some 77 county and district fairs and the California State Fair in Sacramento appear to be out the window for at least two years, proving once again that economy in government is desirable—only for someone else.

The legislature had a number of opportunities to make some long-needed changes this year, and even the backing of Gov. Brown's administration on one point. But the answer was no.

The governor's bill, AB1433 by Assemblyman Thomas M. Rees (D-Los Angeles), to abolish the Fairs and Exposition Fund, was killed in committee. The bill was designed to bring the fairs under the same budgetary scrutiny of the legislature as state departments.

AS IT IS, the F&E Fund, composed of pari mutuel betting taxes from race tracks, doles out from $65,000 to $250,000 apiece to the fairs. Many play to only a few thousand people and can't spend that much, even counting their losses.

The State Fair accounts for some three-quarters of a million down the drain each year.

Assemblyman Samuel R. Geddes (D-Napa), an unsung opponent of present fair administration, didn't have much better luck—even though his bills on the fairs were in his own committee, Assembly Agriculture. Geddes had to drop a bill to create a new Fair Commission, as well as a bill to create a new board of directors for the State Fair.

THE FAIRS, through the powerful lobby of the Western Fairs Association, have made it as unpopular to criticize fairs as it is to point out faults of public education or civil service. The WFA is a willing worker along these lines as it receives most of its support (an estimated $70,000 a year) from membership fees of California fairs. These fees, of course, come from the F&E fund and, as such, are actually from the taxpayers.

This was not the first time around for Geddes on the question of fairs. In previous sessions he has sponsored, just as unsuccessfully, legislation to require fairs to have all free gates, or no free passes. As it is now, about half the admissions to the shows are on free passes.

Earlier in the session, a bill by Sen. J. William Beard (D-El Centro) would have made it illegal to use the taxpayers' money to pay the membership fees in Western Fairs Association. This, too, went down the drain in committee.

GOV. BROWN IS to be commended for the move he made toward more economy in operation of fairs. The Rees bill to bring fair budgets under the legislature would have been a good step toward proper administration. Rees had admitted some fairs might have to go, if they were found to be unnecessary or impractical. This admission, of course, is probably the reason the bill was killed.

Despite Brown's move to abolish the F&E Fund, however, he recently signed a bill into law which would increase membership on the local fair boards from eight to nine persons.

DRIVER ESCAPES AS TRUCK OVERTURNS

H. C. Gilbert of San Lorenzo was tooling along the San Quentin road yesterday with a load of lumber when the rear dummy wheels on the truck (added to support extra weight) locked. The truck, loaded with 15 tons of lumber, overturned, and the wheels let go and rolled free. Gilbert emerged unscathed.

Smog Advisers Approve 2nd Regulation

PLEASANTON (AP)—Proposed anti-smog regulation No. 2 was approved with half a dozen minor technical changes by the Bay Area Air Pollution Control Board's advisory council yesterday.

The regulation will go before the directors of the district June 3. Directors will fix a date for public hearings, originally set for June 10.

SETS DENSITY

The proposal would lay down the allowable density and maximum number of units of pollution from industrial installations, and home incinerators and barbecues.

The proposal, containing 22 pages of regulations, excludes one and two-family residences but applies to industrial operations.

Its sections:

1. Limit the quantity of emission of particles from industrial plants on the basis of weight, opacity and visible particles.
2. Describe the length of time during which emissions into the atmosphere may reach certain standards of visibility.

LIMITS TIME

3. Limit the time and amount of gases which may be emitted.
4. Contain requirements for providing sampling facilities.
5. Require registration of all sources of emission with the control district.

More than 5,000 vessels normally pass annually through the Suez Canal.

County Can't Levy Fire Tax, Mayors Told

There is no statutory authority permitting the county board of supervisors to levy a special fire protection tax in unincorporated areas not in fire districts, according to County Counsel Leland H. Jordan.

At last night's Marin Council of Mayors meeting at Deer Park Villa in Fairfax, San Anselmo Councilman Camel H. Booth read a letter from Jordan to Supervisor William D. Fusselman clarifying the tax situation.

ONLY WAY

"Such a tax," Jordan wrote, "could be levied only if there were created a fire protection district including all the unincorporated territory not presently within any fire district."

The matter arose several months ago at a mayors meeting in Mill Valley in connection with whether city fire departments could enter unincorporated areas to fight fires. Members contended such areas were not bearing their proper portion of the tax load for fire protection.

The mayors at that time named a subcommittee to investigate, with Mrs. Booth a member. Chairman was Mayor Robert D. Huber of Mill Valley, who was not present last night.

COUNTY DEPARTMENT

"The county fire department," Jordan noted in his letter, "is maintained by general county funds for purposes of providing protection to the watershed lands of the county, both within and without city limits and fire districts."

Mrs. Booth noted that for this protection to watershed land, the state Division of Forestry contributes $96,000 annually. She suggested this might be jeopardized if the operations of the county department were questioned.

The report was filed without further action.

Sheriff Louis P. Mountanos addressed the mayors on operations of his office.

ONLY ON CALL

Mountanos said that, except for such services as identification, photography and similar functions, the sheriff enters a city only on call.

Criticizing the cost setup for the sheriff's office, San Rafael City Councilman Charles W. Aby declared: "Some time ago, the Legislature provided legislation permitting a charge to unincorporated areas for police services. However, the supervisors ducked the question two years ago, suggesting the matter be debated by cities and improvement clubs. The matter was never pursued."

The mayors also heard Lt. Col. Lyman Woodman of Hamilton Air Force Base urge development of an adequate indoor rifle and pistol range for training and education of adults and young people.

CLOSE SHAVERS REHEARSE

Getting in trim for tomorrow's all-school festival at Novato High School are junior Chuck Bennett (left) and sophomore Dave Williams both on the Nova yearbook staff, who will help man the "barber college" booth at the school's tennis courts. The festival will feature an array of carnival attractions from 3 to 8 p.m. Many will offer prizes for skillful winners. The barber college offers the touchy opportunity to test your ability to shave a balloon without getting sprayed with shaving soap.

Chest X-Ray Business Booming At Hospital

"I read about Arthur Godfrey's lung cancer, and I think I've got chest pains like his!" "Boy, that lung cancer operation on TV sure threw a scare into me!"

Comments like these have been heard with almost monotonous regularity during the past month by minifilm chest X-ray operators in the emergency room at Marin General Hospital.

The number of Marinites requesting X-rays has increased dramatically since Godfrey, the radio-TV star, underwent lung surgery in New York and a San Francisco television station offered a chilling close-up view of a lung cancer operation on a patient who later died.

So far this month, 1,247 minifilm chest X-rays have been given at Marin General Hospital, compared with 678 in April, 761 in March and 493 in February.

The May total already has set a one-month record, according to Mrs. Belva Bamberg, executive secretary of the Marin County Tuberculosis Assn.

The TB association and the Marin County Hospital District share the cost of providing free chest X-rays at the hospital for all persons aged 14 and over.

X-rays are taken in the hospital emergency room weekdays from 10 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. and 1:30 to 5:30 p.m., and on Saturdays from 10 a.m. to noon.

"Besides tuberculosis," Mrs. Bamberg said, "the TB association is vitally concerned about evidence of other diseases found in the minifilms. The only funds we have to work with are those contributed through the purchase of Christmas Seals and personal donations."

Assembly Crime Committee Kills Anti-Smut Bills

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—A series of five bills designed to crack down on pornographic literature has been laid to rest for this session of the Legislature by the Assembly Crime Committee.

The committee, by a 6-3 vote, this week killed the entire series which had been offered by Assemblyman Louis Francis (R-San Mateo).

Assemblyman Bruce F. Allen (R-San Jose) set the tone of the committee when he told Francis, "You have a good idea here, Lou, but these are the worst drafted bills I have ever seen."

One of the bills would have permitted courts to issue injunctions against printers of smut.

The others were designed to stiffen the penalties against selling indecent literature to minors and to make it illegal for magazine distributors to force news dealers to accept obscene publications in order to get other magazines.

Water Pollution Study Approved By Assembly Unit

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—The Assembly Natural Resources Committee has approved a $551,120 study of water pollution in San Francisco Bay and in the Sacramento River.

The plan, by Assemblyman Charles Meyers (D-San Francisco) was sent this week to the Ways and Means Committee which will decide if the study is worth the money.

Meyers said the bay and the river were two of the "most polluted bodies of water in the state."

He said the money asked by the bill was "a small figure in attempting to solve a very serious problem."

If Meyers' bill becomes law, $392,500 will be used in studying the Sacramento River and $158,620 will be spent on San Francisco Bay.

Giants Picking Up Steam In Pursuit Of Milwaukee

HANLEY'S REPORT

Manager Is Never Entirely Correct

By JACK HANLEY I-J Correspondent SAN FRANCISCO—Bill Rigney, acclaimed or defamed depending upon the fluctuating fortunes of the Giants, has a new story to spring on critics. The Giant manager is indebted to Dodger Manager Walt Alston for the story and also Mel Durslag, Los Angeles sports columnist, who dutifully recorded it as follows:

Walter Alston, the beleaguered manager of the Dodgers, finished his address before 800 members of the Greater Los Angeles Traffic Club the other night and invited questions from the floor.

After an hour or so of grilling on why he did this, and why he didn't do that, Walt then said:

"Now I want to ask you a question. Supposing the score is 0-0 in the ninth against San Francisco and Demeter singles with nobody out. Hodges, Reppski and Pignatano are coming up next. How many of you would play safe and let Hodges bunt?"

About a third of the group raised their hands.

"HOW MANY of you," continued Alston, "would try to advance the man and avoid the double play by calling a hit and run?"

Another third raised their hands.

"How many of you would let Hodges hit away for the Coliseum screen?"

Still another third raised their hands.

"Now you see what managing is like," said Alston. "Regardless of what I'd do, I'd be wrong with two-thirds of you."

Coming back from Los Angeles on the Giants' chartered plane last Sunday night we asked Rigney if he had seen Durslag's column reporting Alston's story.

HE LOOKED up smiling from a fast disappearing steak that would have defied him a few weeks ago when he still hadn't mastered the technique of his new choppers, souvenirs of that auto accident.

"I got it," he said, "and it will come in handy one of these days on the luncheon circuit."

AND FOR those fans who would like to get a closer verbal crack at the umpires, tomorrow is a golden opportunity.

If you have any pertinent or impertinent questions for the arbiters, Walter Mails of the Giants' Speakers Bureau has made it easy.

"The guests at the weekly Leopard Cafe Friday Luncheon of the Giants' Boosters Club will be the umpires working the current series at Seals Stadium," Mails announced.

"They are Al Barlick, Shag Crawford, Bill Jackowski and Vic Delmore. As the senior member of the group, of the entire National League umpiring staff in fact, Barlick will do the principal speaker's chore."

Barlick has worked five World Series and four All-Star games since coming to the N.L. from the International League toward the close of the 1940 season at the age of 25. So he has an almost limitless fund of baseball stories.

HE IS A protege of the "old arbiter" Bill Klem and got his major league bid from the I.L. when Klem sustained a knee injury.

Umpire baiters, who usually feel reasonably safe while cat-calling from a distance in the stands, may hesitate in applying any rough needle to Barlick when they see him close-up.

He is pretty handy with his dukes. He used to be a coal miner in Illinois and started umpiring sandlot ball at $1 a game to earn money during a miners' strike.

BOWLING

Corda's 610 Top Effort At Greenbrae

Willie Corda of Bret Harte Super team bombed the pins for a 610 series Tuesday night in the Greenbrae Lanes Handicap League.

Following a mediocre start on a 165 game, Corda followed it up with a 202 and a whopping 243 to walk away with top honors.

Other leading keggers: Bob Ahrens, Ross Merchants, 194-192-206—592; Sam Gilliland, San Anselmo Furniture, 194-224-172—590; Jim Dehl, Northwestern Savings and Loan, 195-155-179—555; Dick Wagner, Ross Merchants, 195-164-177—536.

Team results and high scorers: Ross Merchants (Ahrens, 592) d. Rose Bowl Chateau (George Hockerson, 461) by 4-0; Northwestern (Dehl, 555) d. Payless Drugs (Ed Gruning, 469) by 4-0; Mill Valley Auto Parts (George Wark, 523) d. J. R. Watkins Co. (Fred Bigall, 483) by 3-1; S.A. Furniture (Gilliland, 590) d. Bret Harte (Corda, 610) by 3-1.

HERMAN SALKIN was the big gun in this week's Koch of California League at Greenbrae with a 527 series, followed by Earl Covalt 519, Sam Pillus 511, Nick Nacca 510 and Lee Mosk, 506.

THE WOMEN'S Friday night Handicap Trio League will not be in action tomorrow night in observance of the Memorial Day weekend.

Last week Polly Nester turned in top series of 515 and top game of 194, according to Publicist Stormy Steed.

The first triplicate of the league was recorded by Sharon Benson when she rolled identical games of 128 in the three-game set.

Callan and Sons Jewelers lead the team standings, followed in order by San Anselmo Hardware, Greenbrae Pharmacy, Lowrie's Yacht Harbor, Shamrock Concrete, Greenbrae Lanes, Chet Solberg Painting, Carlson's Express, Del's Liquors, Joe's of Novato, Inter-City Furniture and Hansen Hairgoods.

In track, Steve Geraghty was named most outstanding varsity member, the same award went to Fred McElroy, B-team, and to Charles Viorel, C-team. Richard Morse was named captain. Coach Frank Mach, who next year will leave Novato High to coach at the University of Washington, made the awards.

The varsity golf team's most outstanding player trophy was won by William McBride. Charles Coleman was named captain. Coach Fielding Reese handed out letters to McBride, Coleman, Howell Broxton, Robert Sparrow, Martin McKeay and Dale Culurus.

"You have to have at least four men who are hitting that ball consistently. We have them now in Willie Mays, Orlando Cepeda, Andre Rodgers and Leon Wagner."

"We have been getting the good pitching, but we've had trouble because it seems that always one man or another was in a slump."

Today the Giants sent big right-hander Jack Sanford to the mound in quest of his seventh triumph. Opposing him was Larry Jackson, a tough-luck guy in Seals Stadium.

Jackson has won three and lost five.

If Sanford receives the batting support that Johnny Antonelli got yesterday in winning his sixth game, everything will be okay.

The handsome left-hander pitched only five innings, got a 6-4 lead then retired.

RELIEF STAR

"I just couldn't work up a sweat in that wind," said Johnny in the dressing room. "So I asked to be taken out. And Al Worthington pitched a beautiful game in relief."

Worthington, hurling the last four frames, allowed only two hits—both in the ninth.

All four Cardinal runs came off Antonelli with one score each being tallied in the second, third, fourth and fifth innings. One of the counters was Stan Musial's 402nd circuit blow of his career, but the first he ever had hit on the west coast. Lee Tate also hit one for the Cards.

San Francisco got two runs in the second on a double by Cepeda, Wagner's single, an outfield error and a pair of sacrifice flies.

WEIRD INNING

The Giants got three in the third on some weird baseball including two singles, two walks, a double steal that scored Mays, an error and another sacrifice fly.

Cepeda hit for the circuit in the fifth and the Giants got three insurance runs in the eighth on a solo homer by Mays and a home run with a man aboard by Rodgers.

The Cardinals' series closes tomorrow with southpaw Elmer (Vinegar Bend) Mizell slated to pitch for St. Louis and Sam Jones for the Giants.

Predict Yank To Gain British Golf Finals

SANDWICH, England (AP)—Five Americans went into the fifth round of the British Amateur Golf Championship today with the experts forecasting that at least one of them will make the final.

Charlie Coe of Oklahoma City, captain of the American Walker Cup team, made the flat prediction: "I am sure one of our boys will be shooting for the title Saturday."

Coe, one of the favorites for the title, lost to Murray Lawrence of England by one hole yesterday in the big upset of the tournament.

But three of his fellow Walker Cuppers were still in the last 16.

Jack Nicklaus of Columbus, Ohio, defeated Noel Fogarty, of Ireland, at the 19th in the fourth round; Bill Hyndman of Philadelphia, defeated Graham Dudley of England 8 and 6; and Dean Behman of Silver Springs, Maryland, defeated Sean McDermott of Ireland, 2 up.

Other Americans through to the fifth round are Harold Ridgley of Roanoke, Va., and Lt. Bob McGee, of Newton, Mass.

HR Ball Continues To Plague Roberts

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

After the opening game this looked like it might be the year Robin Roberts completed his comeback, but now it's already a long, long season for Philadelphia's right-handed veteran.

Roberts was The Associated Press comeback-of-the-year choice in the National League last season when he won 17 games for the last place Phillies.

When he beat Cincinnati's Don Newcombe 2-1 opening day after a five-inning no-hit duel, there were thoughts of the old Roberts, who had been a 20-game winner for five consecutive seasons before becoming the N.L.'s biggest loser in 1956 and 1957.

Now he's 2-2, clobbered once more by the home run ball as he lost his third in a row last night at Cincinnati 10-4. The club he had held hitless for five innings on opening day chased him within four innings with eight hits, three of them homers, and six runs.

That victory hoisted the Reds into a fifth place tie with the Chicago Cubs, beaten 4-1 at Los Angeles. First place Milwaukee retained a three-game lead by beating Pittsburgh 4-3 after San Francisco's second place Giants peppered St. Louis 9-4 in an afternoon game.

Walters Battle In Richmond Go Chico Santos, welterweight champion of Portugal, meets Oakland's Jimmy Smith tonight in a scheduled 10-round bout at Richmond Auditorium.

Smith, although he has never appeared in a main event before, was expected to enter the ring a solid favorite because of his greater hitting power. He has a 14-2-0 record. Santos has a 62-7-2 mark and is undefeated in this country.

Vada Pinson, Frank Robinson and Ed Bailey hit the homers off Roberts. Robinson added another, his 11th

Chisox, Wynn Keep Pace With Injuns

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

If the way Cleveland has managed to hold the American League lead is a surprise, imagine where the Indians might be if they could shake loose from Chicago's White Sox, the club they have a tough time beating, and Early Wynn, the guy they can't beat at all.

Half of Cleveland's 14 defeats through the first quarter of the schedule have been from the second place White Sox. And three of those have been nailed by Wynn, who has won seven in a row from the Injuns since they traded him away a year and a half ago.

Cleveland's just a game in front after Wynn and the White Sox went to work again yesterday for a 5-1 victory over the Indians.

Baltimore, the only other club with an edge (3-2) over Cleveland this year, missed a chance to close in when Washington's Camilo Pascual beat the third place Orioles 6-0 last night with a two-hitter.

Last place New York squeezed past Boston 3-2 in the other

A.L. game. Detroit was rained out at Kansas City.

In the National League, first place Milwaukee defeated Pittsburgh 4-3, San Francisco held onto second by whipping St. Louis 9-4, Los Angeles took third with a 4-1 victory over the Chicago Cubs and Cincinnati ripped Philadelphia 10-4.

Wynn, a 39-year-old right-hander, closed in on the top-20 group of all-time winners with his 256th victory, but needed Gerry Staley's relief help for the last two outs. Wynn is 21st on the all-time list of winners, four shy of Ted Lyons' 260. Wynn is tops among active pitchers, with Milwaukee's Warren Spahn, who won his 252nd last night, No. 25 in the all-time rankings.

The White Sox, who had lost three in a row, put it away with eight hits against Gary Bell (4-3). Two were homers, one a solo smash by Sherm Lollar and the other a one-on shot by Earl Torgeson in a clinching three-run sixth inning.

Pascual gained his first two-hitter after holding the Orioles hitless until Gene Woodling and Albie Pearson, a Senator until yesterday, singled in the seventh. Harmon Killebrew upped his major league-leading home run total to 16 with a three-run blast in the first inning against loser Ernie Portocarrero (0-4).

The Yankees were hitless until the fifth when Andy Carey socked a home run against loser Ike Delock (5-2). Bill Skowron hit a two-run homer in the seventh for the winning margin as Boston broke through Duke Maas' two-hit shut-out bid on Pete Runnel's two-run homer in the ninth. Reliever Ryne Duren saved it for Maas (3-2) and the Yanks, who were out-hit 5-4.

RABBIT'S FOOT? YANKEES GET WHOLE RABBIT

NEW YORK (P)—Ralph Terry, right-hander acquired from Kansas City, will have something more than a rabbit's foot going for him when he pitches tonight for the New York Yankees. He'll have a whole rabbit.

"The way we're going—you know you're with a tail-end club now—you'll need some luck," Manager Casey Stengel said when he told Terry he would pitch against Baltimore tonight.

Stengel stepped over to his locker, pulled out a stuffed white rabbit and handed it to Terry.

Casey said, "Somebody sent it to me. Thought it might do some good."

Haddix Reaps Honors For His Perfect Game

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (UP)—Frustrated Harvey Haddix is sampling the fruits of defeat today, and finding that they're not so bitter after all.

The little Pittsburgh Pirates lefthander will be the subject of interviews, endorsements, banquets and even a National League ceremonial because of the 12 innings of perfect baseball he threw at the Milwaukee Braves Tuesday night.

The historic hour will mean some extra money for him too. How much isn't certain at this time, but one unofficial source said it could boost his income this year by $19,000, maybe more. Television shows doubtless will be after him to tell his story. The razor blade sponsors will probably want him to shave before the cameras.

He was deluged with telegrams yesterday and probably gave more interviews in a day than he had in his seven years in the majors.

"You probably were the most photographed and talked about man in the country today," said a reporter. Just then another radio man came up and asked if Haddix "was ready." With that he walked over to the corner of the dugout to repeat the story of how he set down 36 Braves in a row without a hit and then lost in a whacky 13th inning.

It wasn't until midday yesterday that the score was finally decreed to be 1-0 by National League President Warren Giles.

The whole affair was complicated. Joe Adcock hit the ball over the fence with Henry Aaron and Felix Mantilla on base for what should have been three runs. But the big first baseman passed Aaron, who had stopped running because he thought the ball was inside the park and Mantilla had already scored. Umpire Frank Dascoli gave Adcock a double and scratched one of the runs.

Giles said only the run necessary to win the game will be counted. He said Adcock would be officially credited with a double.

Giles also said the National League is preparing an "appropriate observance" of Haddix' performance. He didn't indicate the nature of the affair, but hinted it will take place at Pittsburgh.

Patterson Manager Pulls Another Disappearing Act

NEW YORK (P)—Where is Cus D'Amato?

The man who holds the answer whether Floyd Patterson will defend his heavyweight boxing title against Sweden's Ingemar Johansson in New York June 25 as scheduled has done another one of his disappearing acts.

Bill Rosensohn, Cus' hand-picked promoter, says the fight will be held as advertised or there will be law suits. But Rosensohn received a telephone call from D'Amato yesterday and quoted Patterson's manager as saying he was thinking of moving the fight from New York.

D'Amato's mysterious view of the fight started after the New York State Athletic Commission denied the application of Harry Davidow, his long-time pal, to become the 10 per cent American manager of Johansson. Cus had recommended Davidow to the unbeaten Swedish fighter.

Bowdry Vaults Into Contention For Title

CHICAGO (P)—A 22-year-old slasher from St. Louis, Jesse Bowdry, has vaulted into top contention for venerable Archie Moore's world light heavyweight title.

Bowdry took apart the erstwhile No. 1 light heavyweight contender, Tony Anthony, for a unanimous decision in a nationally-televised 10-round bout in Chicago Stadium last night.

In a brutal but one-sided battle, Bowdry gave a tremendous boost to his No. 7 ranking by belting Anthony, a 3 to 1 favorite, all over the ring.

"We want the winner of the Moore-Yvon Durelle title fight in Montreal July 15," clamored Bowdry's co-manager, Eddie Yawitz.

On the other hand, Truman Gibson, president of National Boxing Enterprises, said his group would like to match Bowdry against Harold Johnson in Chicago Stadium July 29.

Johnson is rated No. 2 by the NBA, but No. 1 contender by Ring magazine which ranked Anthony No. 2 before the fight last night.

Whether or not it was reflected in the television cameras, this was one of the most vicious fights in the Chicago Stadium in a long while. Both battlers tore after each other with brutal intent to the delight of 1,008 fans.

Bowdry proved to have far more guns than Anthony, whose reputed boxing skill and punching power had to be shelved in defensive maneuvering.

This was the seventh defeat for Anthony, of New York, in 46 matches. For Bowdry it was his 27th victory against three defeats, all by Chicago's Sonny Ray.

Bowdry got a 48-39 vote from Referee Frank Sikora; a 50-41 call from Judge Bill Doty and a 48-41 ballot from Judge Howard Walsh. The AP had Bowdry winning, 50-40.

Bowdry weighed 175 pounds against Anthony's 177. The net gate was $807.21.

Pit Stops May Decide '500' Classic

INDIANAPOLIS (P)—The contenders in Saturday's 500-mile auto race figure it will be such a close contest that it may be won or lost in the pits.

To save a few seconds in the stops for fuel and tires, mechanics have installed pneumatic jacks on five of the cars. One crewman will attack a tank of compressed air to a fitting and the car will hop up on three or four legs.

Manual jacks will be eliminated from cars driven by Jim Rathmann, Miami; his brother, Dick, San Gabriel, Calif.; last year's winner Jimmy Bryan, Phoenix, Ariz.; Eddie Sachs, Center Valley, Pa., and Rodger Ward, Los Angeles.

Sachs and Jim Rathmann will start in the first three-car row along with pole winner Johnny Thomson, Boyertown, Pa.

Bryan has gone all the way four times in the Memorial Day classic, Jim Rathmann and Don Freeland have finished three times, and Paul Russo, Jimmy Daywalt, 1956 winner Pat Flaherty, Johnny Boyd and Bob Veith have done it twice.

Don Carter, Wife Win Keg Titles

NEW YORK (P)—There are two champions in the Carter family today.

Known as "Mr. and Mrs. Bowling," Don and Laverne Carter won the bowling world's Champions Tournament at Madison Square Garden last night just minutes apart.

While Don was defeating fellow St. Louisian Ray Bluth, his wife was duplicating over Mary Louise Young of Houston on the other set of lanes.

Deer Top Subject At F & G Meeting

SACRAMENTO (UP)—The California Fish and Game Commission meets here today to begin its crucial session on big game hunts during the coming summer and fall.

Up for consideration today will be relatively minor matters in the light of tomorrow's session.

Tomorrow's matters will be proposals for deer hunts, including either-sex shoots, statewide. Other big game hunts also will be set.

Commissioner Carl F. Wente of San Francisco has served notice that he will try to get the Commission to open the coastal deer season two weeks earlier than originally planned.

In the Commission's hunt determinations, made public April 29, the early and late deer seasons were set to overlap by one day. The early coastal season would be Aug. 8-Sept. 20 and the late inland season to start Sept. 19-Oct. 25.

Wente wants the early season to begin in July.

Sixteen either-sex deer hunts in scattered areas of the state have been proposed, although county commissioners can veto the proposals. Department Head William E. Warne has said he believes there should be more.

Commissioners have proposed to allow hunters to bag one hen pheasant this year during the regular season on the theory that if the hunters can't get cock pheasants, at least they won't go home with empty hands.

The pheasant season is proposed for Nov. 14-29, the same length as last year. The bag and possession limit will be two pheasants per day or 10 per season in Southern California but with a limit of one hen for the entire season.

In Northern California, the limit will be ten males or nine males and one female.

Yankees Hit By Adverse Planetary Influences, So Says Beauty Queen

By OSCAR FRALEY

NEW YORK (UP)—The quest to discover just what is wrong with the New York Yankees can take an inquisitive sports writer into the strangest places.

Like Tina Louise's bedroom.

It's all in the interest of research, y'understand. Baseball research, that is. Tina's telephone is in the bedroom and some statistics were needed. Baseball statistics.

Anyhow, Tina, the queen-sized redhead who makes technicolor necessary, is not only a baseball buff, but also quite a hand with horoscopes. This has to do with heavenly bodies, and ain't it the truth. But, to get back to baseball. She has turned her astrological microscope on the floundering Yankees and made a number of interesting discoveries.

"Things are going to remain on the blue side for them for some time yet," she allowed.

"The key Yankee players are feeling adverse planetary influences," she insisted. "Too many of them are Tauruses (Tauri?) and Leos and they are going through a period of great nervousness and tenseness."

Taurus, as I get it, is a bull and Leo is a lion in the planetary batting order. The ways of this outer space animal world are strange to me, but there's no question about the Yankees being as tight as Tina's blue dress.

"The stars say that they'll come to better times soon," she added "so I'm quite certain that they'll eventually win the pennant. After all, the stars also say that Casey Stengel will retire in a year and he would not quit a loser."

The big Yankee need, if you thought it was pitching, according to Tina's satellite soothsaying is for more Libras. These are folks who were born between Sept. 24 and Oct. 23 so it doesn't look as if Ralph Terry and Hector Lopez, obtained Tuesday in the trade with Kansas City, will be of much assistance. Terry is a Capricorn and Lopez is a moon child.

"The Yankees, according to the stars, aren't hungry enough," Tina related. "They have too many outside financial interests. Yogi Berra and Gil McDougald both are under the sign of Taurus, along with Country Slaughter, and this is a bad period for them although brighter days are ahead. Bob Turley is a Virgo and the influences are bad for him, too, right now."

"Bobby Shantz is a Libra," the statuesque actress continued, "and should help the Yankees greatly in this period as they find themselves again. Moose Skowron is a Sagittarius and this is very promising. He will be a great help with his enthusiasm and inspirational qualities."

The BULLPEN

With JOHN J. CONNOLLY

If Giants Land In 2nd Division, Rigney May Be Out Of A Job

The smartest guy in the world is the fellow who agrees with you.

A letter from Col. J. S. Switzer of Point Reyes Station gives us a nice pat on the back for our notes on the San Francisco Giants. Which is better than a kick in the pants.

More to the point, Colonel Switzer has a few ideas of his own which bear repeating. He points out that the Giants have "ability, zeal and youth, but are lacking in that steady quick-thinking play which comes only from experience, which in turn requires smart managing."

Concerning the mixed racial makeup of the Giants, the good colonel praises the physical reflexes and abilities of these athletes, but wonders if Manager Bill Rigney is fully capable of handling the explosive temperaments that go with the combination.

TO USE his own words: "I don't know Rigney's playing experience, but the best players do not necessarily make the best managers, and that is true in more fields than athletics. "Coaching is like the cigarette ad . . . it takes a thinking man's experience . . . and they do not often come in one package."

Switzer also faults Rigney on "making a salad of his team so the kids don't know where they are going to play from week to week, as this does not develop teamwork or confidence."

Perhaps Colonel Switzer was overseas when Rigney was playing, or he would know that Bill was a better than average infielder, and a real swell guy.

Budget Stalled Until Water Issued Settled

SACRAMENTO (UP)—Gov. Edmund G. Brown's two-billion-dollar budget was stalled temporarily in the Assembly today by an asserted move to find out whether the Senate means business on the state water program.

The delaying tactic brought a howl from majority Democrats.

The big money bill passed the House yesterday 55-25, or by just one more than the necessary two-thirds vote. Eight Republicans swung over to support a solid Democratic front.

BLOCKS BUDGET

Assemblyman Bruce F. Sumner (R-Newport Beach), GOP whip, blocked the budget from going to the Senate by a notice of reconsideration.

He told newsmen a group of southern assemblymen aimed to hold it up until the Senate acts late today on the governor's bill for a one and three-fourths-billion-dollar bond issue to finance a statewide water system.

Majority leader Hugh M. Burns (D-Fresno) expressed confidence the water measure would clear the Senate.

WANTS NO FIGHT

Sumner said he had "agreed" not to offer amendments to trim the budget of water funds asked by Brown to get the Feather River Project started. He said he didn't want to precipitate a renewal of the north-south water fight.

Ways and Means Chairman Jesse M. Unruh (D-Los Angeles) made it plain, however, he was not a party to any agreement. He said he would demand immediate consideration of Sumner's motion.

More pointedly, Assemblyman S. C. Masterson (D-El Sobrante) charged that Sumner's holding action "exposes the hypocrisy of GOP maneuvering."

He termed it "a delaying tactic in the purest sense."

The governor himself was pleased by the Assembly vote for what he termed the "tightest, toughest state budget in many years."

Secrecy Measure Sent To Assembly

SACRAMENTO (UP)—A bill which would allow police to withhold the names of their informants in narcotics cases was sent to the Assembly today with Senate approval.

The bill, authored by Sen. Donald Grunsky (R-Watsonville), was refused passage in the Senate a week ago when opponents argued that narcotics could be planted on any one and he would not be able to obtain the name of the person who tipped the police.

Grunsky amended the bill so that victims of a plant could enter a plea to that effect and the court would take the name of the informant from police and rule as to whether or not the defendant had been victimized.

4 Surviving Quints Become 25 Today

MONTREAL (UP)—Three housewives and a nurse—all famed from birth—celebrate their 25th birthdays today separately.

The four surviving Dionne quintuplets, estimated to be worth a total of more than one million dollars, planned quiet observances.

Annette, Cecile and Marie are married. Annette has a seven-month-old boy and Cecile is the mother of an eight-month-old boy. Yvonne is a nurse. The fifth quint, Emilie, died in 1954.

The sisters visit with each other occasionally, and telephone each other almost every day.

Germain Allard, Annette's husband and a finance company executive, said each of the girls would celebrate separately.

"Annette and I plan to celebrate with some very close friends, and Cecile and her husband, Philippe Langlois, will do the same thing. Yvonne also plans to spend the day with some close friends, and Marie's husband, Florian Houle, plans to take her out somewhere special for dinner, he said.

Allard said the girls probably would drop in on each other during the day. But he said "there is definitely no big party or anything special planned," and none of their family from Callander, Ontario, was expected to travel here.

"If anyone comes, it will be a surprise to all of us," Allard said.

The quint accumulated a fortune endorsing hundreds of products and through investments handled for them by a

MOTHER-DAUGHTER LEGAL TEAM

Mrs. Janie Hixon Courtright (right) and her daughter, D. Dian Hixon, 26, will become a mother-daughter attorney team on June 10. That's the day Dian will be admitted to the bar and join her mother in the practice of law in Los Angeles. The mother says she became interested in law after reading mystery stories. Dian began reading her mom's law textbooks, took up the study of law and this spring was one of two women who passed bar exams. (AP Wirephoto) trust company. It was reliably estimated on their 21st birthday at about a quarter-million dollars each—and is believed to have grown considerably since then.

Brown Cites Gains In Crime Fight

SAN JOSE (UP)—Gov. Edmund G. Brown called on California last night to stop "trying to cope with modern crime with horse and buggy techniques."

He told the State Peace Officers Assn. annual convention the critical problems are narcotics, prison congestion and idleness, judicial limitations on law enforcement and "the shocking slaughter on our public highways."

Brown credited the state Legislature with successfully attacking the problem of re-addiction among narcotics parolees in a bill setting up a treatment clinic at Chino, and allowing naline tests on parolees to verify cures.

The governor said overcrowding and idleness in state prisons is being dealt with by a crash program of work camps in flood control, stream clearance, park maintenance, fire prevention and related projects.

Brown commended legislative passage of a flat 65 m.p.h. speed limit but said he was disappointed that action on his other traffic safety recommendations hasn't moved faster.

RICKY CITED FOR SPEEDING; DAD WATCHES

VAN NUYS (UP)—Ricky Nelson idol of the teen-age set, got a speeding ticket today, with his father looking on.

Officers Richard Baldwin and Danny Gardner said they stopped the 19-year-old singer-actor for going 50 m.p.h. in a 35 m.p.h. zone in his sports car.

The father, Ozzie Nelson, was in a car ahead. He returned and silently watched his son being ticketed.

Milk Depot Bill Dies In Legislature

SACRAMENTO (UP)—The bill to remove the special low price of milk at drive-in milk depots has been killed for this session of the Legislature. It would have prohibited drive-in milk depots from selling at less than state-set prices. These depots have been selling milk at two cents per quart cheaper than retail stores.

Milk distributors warned during earlier hearings that unless the depots were controlled, state minimums would be widely broken by retail stores and might lead to a complete breakdown of the state milk price control program.

The measure was moved out of the Assembly Livestock and Dairies Committee yesterday for a two-year interim study by Assemblyman Richard H. McCollister (R-San Rafael) who said he was "disgusted" with both sides of the issue.

McCollister said he had worked for weeks with the major dairies and the drive-in association on a compromise "but I can't find any area of agreement."

Assemblyman Carley V. Porter (D-Compton), author of the bill, said he planned to ask that the bill remain in the committee, thus avoiding an interim study of the issue, but McCollister replied:

"This bill can't remain in committee at all. I expect lawsuits to spring up over this and it should be reviewed thoroughly."

Marines Hit Beaches In War Exercise

CAMP PENDLETON (UP)—Thousands of battle-clad Marines stormed this sprawling base today through the surf and through the air in the largest West Coast landing since January, 1957.

More than 60 ships, including 35 troop transports, moved into position before dawn for the attack on an imaginary enemy force at the base.

Sixteen thousand leather-necks came ashore in landing craft. Another 1,200 hit hard behind the lines in a "vertical envelopment" exercise using troop-carrying helicopters.

The "copters took 21 Marines at a time from the decks of the carrier Princeton, flew them inland at 100 miles an hour, landed and returned for more.

The job of the inland force in the war games was to hit the enemy on the flanks and rear in an attack to relieve the pressure of troops coming through the surf.

Close air support was provided by the 3rd Marine Aircraft Wing from El Toro Marine Air Station near Santa Ana. The jets swept low over the beaches to aid the landing troops.

The Princeton recently was converted from an anti-submarine vessel to an amphibious assault ship.

Navy and Marine officers have discovered amphibious assault ships of the future must be re-designed.

Marines—heavily weighted with gear—find it difficult to climb rapidly up narrow ladders.

David Del Tredici, of San Anselmo, brilliant young pianist, showed also in his performance as guest artist on last week's program of the Thursday Musical Club that he has the poise and polish a much older performer might envy. ## 'COUNTRY CLOCK'

Fashion Drama Is Presented At Fashion Focus Luncheon

A prize-winning fashion mystery, authored by Grace Graham of Kentfield, titled, "The Tale of the Country Clock," took the stage on Tuesday at Rickey's popular Fashion Focus luncheon.

Cast of characters: the members of the Drama Section of the San Rafael Improvement Club honored for their interest in live theater both behind and in front of the footlights with two special dramatic events scheduled each year.

The time: the present. Act I: Morning, Act II: Afternoon, Act III: Evening.

Tuesday's fashionable drama was intimately concerned with what we do with the small four letter word "TIME," consider the tale of the clock, as it ticks it tells you a lot!

It reminds you that it takes time and talent, ingenuity, patience and fortitude to learn to be a skillful fashion shopper, just as it does to produce a successful stage production. Unfortunately much time is wasted in fruitless fashion shopping where the buyer ends up with a "closet full of clothes and nothing to wear."

Not so, when a wardrobe is planned the Grace Graham way. In a smooth, sparkling array of colorful casuals, separates and sophisticates, the attractive Drama Section models proved "there's no excuse for looking like tramps, you can save time like you do green stamps." How? By wise planning of a summer wardrobe, skillful shopping, knowing the right outfit for the right occasion and adding the fashion knowledge of Grace Graham.

HAIR STYLIST

Hair-doing proved to be much like fruitless shopping; many hours spent in trying it this way and that, when in the hands of imaginative stylists like Mr. William and Mr. Jon of The Carousel in San Anselmo, the time saved would be your own, and the results as pretty and creative as their hair styles for the models.

The ticking of decorative clocks from the charming antique shop of Carmel Taylor in the Rickey lobby with their hands set to the right hour of the day introduced the fashion drama.

"Tale of the Country Clock," "8 a.m. Coffee Klatch," worth klatching over, Mrs. C. Bruce Green shirtmakered in Indian Madras plaided with muted blue, gray and red, plus a red wool cardigan.

"10 a.m., par for the course," Mrs. Kenneth Walkmeister, teeing off in newsy print Bermudass, pepper black shirt and red straw belt.

"11 a.m., San Francisco date," keeping it, Mrs. Clarence de Long suited in gray and white silk textured tweed; a Dior skirt, blouson jacket with self tie belt, red carnations and red leather bag, the accent touches.

"12:30, Fashion Focus lunch," for Mrs. Lewis Lustre Robinson, pleated around Dacron, for success in Marin or Europe; mocha flowers demurely splashed on white.

"3 p.m., Bridge Game," the winning hand, textured linen mesh, tailored champagne simplicity with elasti-band waist, easy skirt, and the smartness of a huge straw and leather bag for Mrs. Donald Murray.

"5 p.m., Country Cocktails," country elegance the separates way, Grace Graham's whipped cream silk linen pleated skirt, soft pink silk shirt, handsome hand embroidered white cardigan around the shoulders of Mrs. Joseph Peterson.

"6 p.m., Barbecue," added spice Mrs. Lawrence Cowen, a tangerine in Moygashel linen embroidered in pastel daises, the skirt flared for flattering ease.

"8 p.m., Dinner for Two," a tasty dish, Mrs. Lawrence Tew, shirtmakered in brilliant pure silk poppies, and more poppies; a wide self cumberbund the better to show off a summer waistline.

Mothers' Forum: Our Boy Was Recently Sent To Reform School

Mrs. M.A. "Recently our boy was sentenced to a reform school. Looking back we can see he first showed signs of trouble when he was in the fourth grade. We wish we had recognized the signs, and taken steps to help him. Couldn't public schools prevent delinquency by spotting emotionally disturbed children early and helping them improve."

Reply. They certainly could. Some schools already do. Teachers are learning the early symptoms of serious trouble. They can refer pupils showing the symptoms to specialists for help. A few school districts maintain child guidance departments to help them directly. Public school guidance departments pay wonderful dividends.

Mrs. E.W. "Our little girl is 3. She has been playing with a little boy. They have disrobed together. I'm not too upset over it, but the boy's parents are. Should we punish her?"

Reply. We have to expect little children to make mistakes. Disrobing together is a common one. Treat it as you would any other mistake. Teach your daughter not to do it again. If she can learn without punishment, so much the better. If she repeats the mistake, punish her. Always use the mildest punishments that will teach the needed lessons. Don't ignore what happened. But don't crack down so hard that you create new problems.

Mrs. J.S. "We have two boys, 30-months old. I must work. Would they be better off in a nursery school with a group of children? Or under the care of a responsible housekeeper in our home?"

Reply. If you can get the right housekeeper, they'll be better off at home. Some nursery school enthusiasts will disagree with this answer. My experience indicates that children under 4 need individual full-time care. The strains of group care often are too much for them.

ALMANAC

Today is Thursday, May 28, the 148th day of the year, with 217 more days to follow in 1959.

The moon is approaching its last quarter.

The morning stars are Mercury and Saturn.

The evening stars are Mars, Venus and Jupiter.

On this date in history:

In 1864, Archduke Maximilian, brother of Emperor Franz Josef of Austria-Hungary, landed at Vera Cruz to assume the throne as emperor of Mexico.

In 1929, Warner Brothers released the first Technicolor movie, "On With the Show." It starred Ethel Waters and Joe E. Brown.

In 1934, the Dionne quintuplets were born near Callender, Ontario, Canada.

In 1940, the evacuation of British and French forces from Dunkirk began.

In 1940, King Leopold III of Belgium was disowned by his cabinet after he surrendered the 300,000-man Belgian army to the Nazis.

A thought for today: From the famous French philosopher, Voltaire, who said: "The secret of being a bore is to tell everything."

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE — Here's how to work it: AXYDLBAAXR is LONGFELLOW

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophes, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

Birth Control Endorsed By Presbyterians

INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—United Presbyterians have joined a succession of other Protestant churches in giving official sanction to birth control.

"The proper use of medical-approved contraceptives may contribute to the spiritual, emotional and economic welfare of the family," says a resolution of the denomination's 171st general assembly.

The subject has long been a source of keen friction between Protestants and Roman Catholics, who strongly oppose any artificial means of birth control.

GIVE ENDORSEMENT
In recent years several Protestant bodies, including the Methodist, Congregational Christian, United Lutheran, Augustana Lutheran and Unitarian Churches, have endorsed it.

The three-million-member Presbyterian church, in the closing session yesterday of its eight-day assembly, adopted a statement saying Christian marriage involves "both companionship and parenthood." It added:

"The sexual life within this relationship is given by God for the benefit of his children" and is not "an evil which needs to be justified by something else, as for example, by the procreation of children."

URGES REPEAL

The church urged repeal of laws banning distribution of birth control information, such as those in Massachusetts and Connecticut.

In other actions on its final day, the assembly:

Urged abolition of capital punishment.

Hit at laws restricting groups promoting racial integration.

Protested federal grants to activities maintaining segregation.

Condemned laws either banning or requiring union shop agreements, under which workers must join a union. Eighteen states bar such contracts by so-called "right-to-work" statutes.

HITS SEGREGATION

Urged steps, including legislation, to prevent segregated housing.

Launched a program to curb alcoholism, and recommended "voluntary abstinence" from liquor.

Commended the National Council of Churches for its courage in facing issues by calling the world order study conference in Cleveland last fall, which advocated governmental recognition of Red China.

Described the Red China issue itself as having arguments on both sides, but expressed hope that the day soon will come when normal relations with China may be honorably established.

Tense conflict arose over confirmation of Dr. Theodore A. Gill as president of San Francisco Theological Seminary in San Anselmo. Despite charges that he questioned Christ's virgin birth, he was overwhelmingly approved.

The 975 delegates decided to meet in Cleveland next year.

Stop Light Saves 50 Motorists From Earth Slide

SANTA MONICA (AP)—A red traffic light saved 50 motorists from possible disaster.

They were stopped on the Pacific coast highway yesterday, waiting on the signal, when 600 tons of earth and rock crashed down from the 250-foot-high Pacific Palisades. Some of the cars would have been in the slide zone but for the light.

The slide covered all lanes of U.S. 101, except a south-bound parking lane, with rubble up to eight feet deep.

There have been numerous slides along the cliff.

"The public is playing Russian roulette every time it drives under this death trap," an inspector at the scene told newsmen.

Engineers warned another landslide might occur momentarily.

AUTO HAS YIELDED

Social Analyst Says Home Is New U. S. Status Symbol

NEW YORK (AP)—The American home has supplanted the automobile as the nation's favorite status symbol, says author Vance Packard, and with increasing national prosperity there has been "a crumbling of visible class lines."

Packard, author of "The Hidden Persuaders" (which analyzed techniques developed to manipulate American consumers), now has taken a look at the class structure and status system of a nation which often boasts a classless society.

The book is called "The Status Seekers," and it is Packard's view that Americans, consciously and unconsciously, reveal their place on the social ladder—or the place they want on the social ladder—by the houses in which they live, the churches they attend, the clubs to which they belong, the food they eat, the stores in which they shop.

His research, he says, leads him to believe the social classes of the nation are regrouping as two great divisions. One he calls "the Diploma Elite" (because the head of the family usually goes to college) and the other "the Supporting Classes." But these two divisions he breaks down into five smaller classes. At the top of the heap, with the diplomas, he places the "real upper class" and the "semi-upper class." Below them are "the limited-success class," "the working class," and the real lower class.

The real lower class, says Packard, knows what it is. The working class isn't fighting to jump its wall. It is in the limited-success and the semi-upper class areas that status, status symbols and social climbing are important.

And many new, sometimes subtle status symbols have become important, he says, since such oldtime upper-class symbols as limousines, mink coats and power boats have become available to so many in our affluent age.

The American home is one of them. "American families in the past few years have been giving more and more thought to the problem of establishing a home that adequately reinforces the status image they wish to project," Packard says. "And home builders have happily helped the trend along by emphasizing status appeals."

Each community has its own "status neighborhoods." In some the elite are clustered on high ground; in others, it is nearness to a body of water that counts.

Women, Packard insists, are more conscious of status and its symbols than men. And the stores in which they choose to shop and what they buy reveals a good deal about their location on the social scale. And so, indeed, does the way their bills are paid—cash or check. Fast or slow.

"Women who get beyond their status in their ventures into stores feel uncomfortable," he reports. "There is a widespread feeling among women that store clerks endeavor to maintain what they consider to be the proper tone for their store by snooting customers who seem out of place."

Packard says, too, that one's status shows by what one eats: "In general, conceptions about what foods best serve as treats become more elaborate as you go down the social scale." Upper classes prefer soft bread. Offbeat foods—venison, wild duck, pompano, caviar—are much better accepted by the two upper classes than by the three lower ones.

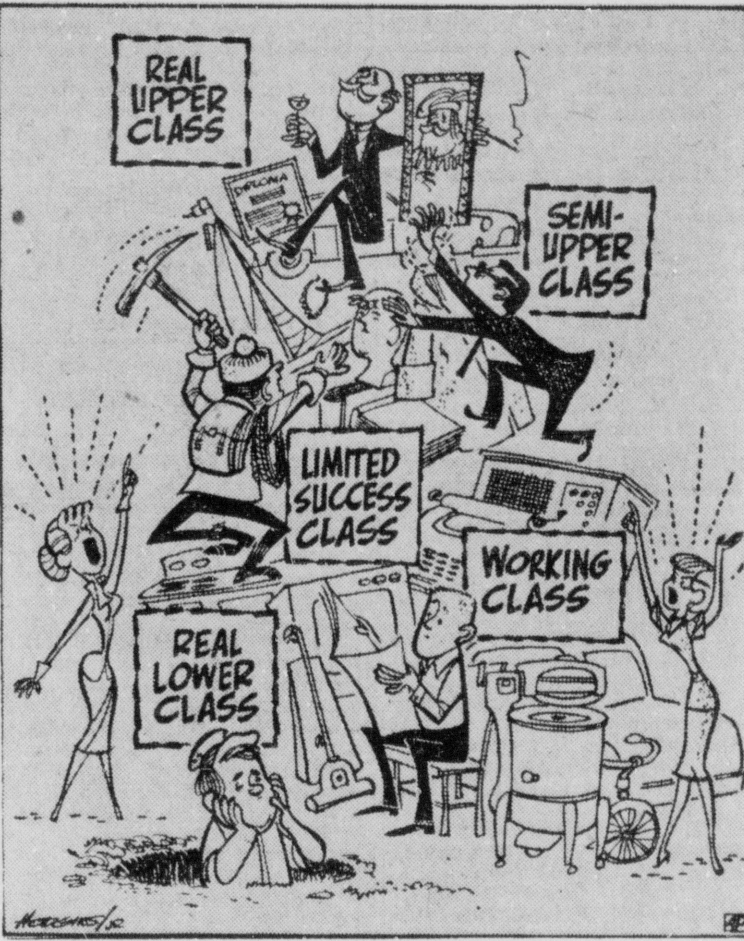

Packard, as a reporter, knows that status-striving goes on, all over America. But he does not approve of the struggle.

"I think we should all be happier, and live more stimulating lives if... we judged people, not by the symbols they display and the labels they wear but rather by their individual worth," he concludes.

Post-Retirement Age Job Bill Approved

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—A bill to permit county employees to continue working after they reach the mandatory retirement age in counties of less than 235,000 population was passed by the Senate yesterday.

The bill, authored by Sen. John Murdy (R-Santa Ana), would not include police and firemen.

Number Of Unwed Teen Mothers On Increase

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Pregnancy among unmarried adolescent girls is increasing, possibly influenced by teen-agers' tolerance toward sexual activity, a government social worker said today.

Mrs. Katherina Brownell Oettinger, chief of the U. S. Children's Bureau, said this trend is likely to continue, giving welfare groups a rapidly growing problem whose real size is not known. Many such pregnancies are not reported, she added.

Addressing the National Conference on Social Welfare, Mrs. Oettinger said illegitimate births have been rising steadily for two decades. In 1940 there were 89,500 and by 1957 they jumped to 201,700.

The rate of motherhood per 1,000 unmarried women tripled between 1940 and 1956.

Mrs. Oettinger quoted Office of Vital Statistics figures showing 77,000 children were born to unwed teen-age mothers in 1956 and 81,000 in 1957. The projected estimate for 1962 is 110,000 to 120,000.

There has been an accompanying increase in venereal disease among teen-age boys and girls, Mrs. Oettinger said. Three public health agencies have joined in warning that this disease increase is a part of a pattern which includes increasing pregnancies at young ages and "increasing teen-age susceptibility to peer group authority and morality."

Mrs. Oettinger said one way of coping with the problem might be to work with peer groups (teen-age elements).

"The influence of the peer group, for good or bad, cannot be questioned during the adolescent period," she said.

A report on 50 unmarried fathers who accepted counseling and social therapy at a founding hospital was made by Sister Ann of St. Elizabeth's Infant Hospital, San Francisco.

Three years ago, Sister Ann said, the hospital realized that the fathers in out-of-wedlock births were presenting themselves with increasing frequency to arrange for the care of their girl friends and to seek advice.

All of the 50 remained in treatment for six months, many of them long after the babies were born, some after the girls had wed other men. None of the 50 married the girl involved, she said.

Seven Insurance Firms Incorporate

SACRAMENTO (CNS)—Secretary of State Frank M. Jordan announced articles of incorporation have been filed for seven insurance brokerage firms, including five from the Bay area, each to be capitalized at $2,500 in $1 par shares.

The firms include the Alameda, California, Los Angeles, Marin, San Francisco, San Mateo and Santa Barbara Insurance Centers, Inc.

Directors were listed as Erik Hotemann, Allen Avenue, Ross; E. G. Ord, 214 Forbes Avenue, San Rafael, and Alfred P. Smith, San Francisco.

Jordan announced three other Marin County firms have filed articles of incorporation.

Wheeler's Marina, a boat sales firm to be capitalized with 2,500 no par shares, listed directors as David G. Wheeler, Walnut Creek; Rae A. Wheeler, Las Vegas, Nev., and Isabella Cheda, 234 Bayview Avenue, San Rafael.

Mill Valley Volkswagen and Leon C. Felton Co., auto sales and service firms, both filed to be capitalized at $500,000 in $10 par shares. Directors were listed as Leon C. and Charlotte Felton, San Francisco; and Laurie J. Felton, 84 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, Ross.

Jobless Benefits Bill Approved

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—A bill which would extend unemployment benefits 13 additional weeks during periods of recessions was approved by the Senate Insurance and Financial Institutions Committee yesterday.

The bill, authored by Sen. George Miller (D-Martinez), defines a period of recession as a time when the unemployed number 6 per cent of the total work force.

The bill also sets up a re-training program by which an unemployed person during a recession could receive benefits to train himself for work in another field which had not been hit so hard by the recession.

WIRE NEWS BRIEFS From Everywhere

20 Guerrillas Drown

RANGOON, Burma (UPI)—Twenty Chinese Nationalist guerrillas drowned when Burmese Army patrols sank their canoes with gunfire in western Burma, the newspaper Nation reported today.

The guerrillas are remnants of the Nationalist army who fled into Burma 10 years ago after the Communist victory in China. They harass Red military outposts and control most of the illegal opium trade between Burma and Thailand.

Saved From Fiery Ship

PINAR DEL RIO, Cuba (AP)—A Cuban navy launch rescued the captain and 28 crewmen of a Greek freighter on fire and grounded last night off the northwest coast of Cuba.

The ship's carpenter was the only fatality reported. He was killed in a boiler explosion which started the fire.

The ship, the 7,214-ton Aghios Spyridon, was grounded on a reef off Puerto Esperanza. The ship was en route from Tokyo to Havana to load sugar.

Quinn Seeks Office

HONOLULU (AP)—Gov. William F. Quinn filed nomination papers yesterday to seek election as Hawaii's first chief executive under statehood.

The 39-year-old Republican was appointed by President Eisenhower.

His Democratic opponent for governor in the July 28 election will be John A. Burns, 50, delegate to Congress.

Dad Sees Girl Killed

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—A horrified father watched a three-ton ornamental brick wall crush his 13-year-old daughter to death yesterday, scant seconds after he had driven her to school.

Three stunned teen-age boys told police they had braced against the opposite side of the wall in attempt to rock or push a school bus parked within three feet of it. The collapse buried Gloria Rivera as a schoolmate talking to her, scrambled to safety.

Gloria's father, Joe Rivera, was powerless to help as the wall fell with deadly suddenness.

Boy, Teased, Hangs Self

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—A tearful mother today told police her 11-year-old son took his own life because his playmates teased him about his dad being a "jailbird."

Mrs. Jose Rios found her son, Pedro, hanging from a bathroom door last night with a leather belt wrapped around his neck. His father was sentenced to jail on a morals charge last month.

Korea Hurls Threat

TOKYO (UPI)—South Korean Ambassador Yiu Tai Ha warned today that his country was ready to use armed force if necessary to prevent Japan from sending Korean residents to Communist North Korea.

Yiu delivered the warning to Renzo Sawada, chief Japanese delegate to the suspended Republic of Korea-Japan talks. A South Korean diplomat said the warning meant that the Seoul government was prepared to attack repatriation ships carrying Koreans from Japan to North Korea.

Repatriation talks between Japan and North Korea have been under way for some time at Geneva.

It's Dulles Boulevard

LAFAYETTE, La. (UPI)—A new boulevard will be named in honor of the late John Foster Dulles, it was announced yesterday.

Spain Arrests 11

MADRID (UPI)—The Spanish government was reported to have arrested at least 11 persons within the last week in a crackdown on anti-regime elements.

Informed sources said yesterday that most of those arrested were connected with illegal Socialist movement in Spain.

Thief Takes Bridge

PETERSBURG, Ind. (AP)—Pike County has lost a bridge. Sheriff Wilmer Whitehead said someone with a cutting torch converted a 30-foot bridge into about three tons of high grade steel and carted it away.

A coal miner discovered the theft yesterday just in time to avoid driving into the unbridged stream.

Accident Toll Rises

CHICAGO (AP)—Traffic deaths on the nation's highways jumped in April for the fourth straight month. This reverses the downward trend in traffic fatalities recorded in 1957 and 1958.

The National Safety Council said today the toll for the first four months this year was 10,680—a gain of 4 per cent from the 10,270 deaths in the same 1958 period.

The increase in April deaths was 1 per cent—2,610 fatalities this year against 2,680 in 1958.

The council estimated that highway accidents also brought disabling injuries to 400,000 persons in the four-month period.

Monty For Governor?

LONDON (UPI)—Retired Field Marshal Viscount Montgomery is "a hot favorite" to succeed Vincent Massey as governor general of Canada, the Laborite Daily Herald said today.

Massey retires next September. Montgomery had no comment on the report.

Death Penalty Modification Bill Signed

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—A bill giving an alternative to the death penalty for life term prisoners convicted of assault in prison has been signed into law by Gov. Edmund G. Brown.

The measure, authored by Sen. John F. McCarthy (R-San Rafael), permits the state to parole such prisoners after nine years if the victim lives a year and a day after the assault.

McCarthy said none of the three life termers involved in prison assaults between 1952-57 was prosecuted under the death penalty provisions.

Dangerous Well To Be Sealed

A dangerous well near Marinwood, about four feet in diameter and 12 feet to the water level, has been ordered sealed, sheriff's deputies reported today.

Bernice C. Lettore of 742 Appleberry, Marinwood, reported that her children had found the well near a creek behind Marinwood. It is on the east side of Lucas Valley road about one-tenth mile north of Caradoza ranch.

Deputy Sheriff Edward McKamey said the well had been covered with concrete slab, but one side had caved in, exposing the well.

Deputy Sheriff George Congden said he learned that the well is on the property of Manuel Pimentel of Novato. Mrs. Isabel Nunes, a relative of Pimentel, said she would contact the owner and have the well covered.

Longer Jobless Benefit Proposal Goes To Senate

SACRAMENTO (AP)—A proposal to lengthen benefits for the jobless in times of high unemployment and help retrain them for new work moved to the Senate floor today.

Endorsed by Gov. Edmund G. Brown, the bill by Sen. George Miller Jr. (D-Martinez) would extend the maximum period of unemployment insurance payments from 26 to 39 weeks whenever more than 6 per cent of the state's three and one-half million insured workers are unemployed.

It would continue payments beyond the 39-week limit for workers taking special training to fit them for new occupations.

Both employer and labor spokesmen testified in favor of the measure as it cleared the Senate Insurance and Financial Institutions Committee by unanimous vote yesterday.

Service League Has Worked 133,000 Hours

The Marin General Hospital Service League inadvertently was done a disservice yesterday by the omission of three important zeros from an Independent-Journal story on accomplishments at the hospital during the past seven years.

The story said more than 133 hours of volunteer service have been contributed by league members since the hospital opened in May, 1952. The correct figure is 133,000.

NEW SUCCESS FOR COMEDY TEAM—A year and a half ago, the Three Stooges were considered washed up after 24 years of success. Then some of their old comedies were released to television, and they were plunged right back into show business. Here, in space suits, they're doing antics for feature movie "Have Rocket, Will Travel." From left: Joe DeRita, Moe Howard and Larry Fine. (AP Wirephoto)

TV Brings 3 Stooges Back For New Career

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Here's evidence of how fantastic show business can be: The Three Stooges are starring in a feature movie.

A year and a half ago, the Stooges were finished, washed up. They had come to the end of a record stand of 24 years at Columbia Pictures making shorts. Their knockabout comedy was considered passe, the market for short subjects had vanished.

Then it happened. The Columbia subsidiary, Screen Gems, released the first batch of old Stooge comedies to TV. Wham! The Stooges, a show business team for a third of a century, found themselves at the height of their fame.

When they were making shorts, they earned $70,000 from the filming and picked up an equal amount on personal appearances. This year they are already guaranteed a $275,000 gross, and the figure may go much higher.

The boys have returned to Columbia, but not to make shorts. They are filming "Have Rocket, Will Travel," their first feature as a starring team. Back in the '30s, they appeared with their old boss Ted Healy in some MGM movies. And more recently they have done some quickie musicals.

"But this is the first time we've been starred in a feature," said Moe Howard proudly. "And we're getting 25 per cent of the take."

Moe is the leader of the Stooges. He's the one with the black bangs. Larry Fine has operatic hairdo, and Joe DeRita is the fat one who takes most of the knocks. He was preceded in his post by Moe's brothers, Curly and Shemp, both now deceased, and comic Joe Besser.

"It's fantastic, what has happened to us," Moe mused. "We've got more offers than we can handle. Now we're doing all kinds of merchandising—hats and other things with our faces on them. We've got an advance from a bubble gum outfit that is bigger than they gave the entire National League!"

Raft Lehi Goes On College Display

HONOLULU (AP)—The trans-Pacific raft Lehi IV was brought to Honolulu yesterday on a barge from the neighboring island of Maui and will be made a permanent exhibit at the Mormon College.

The 12-ton raft, with Mormon Skipper De Vere Baker, a crew of three and a small dog drifted to Maui from California last summer.

Baker and his wife were to leave today for Redondo Beach, where he will supervise construction of Lehi V.

Baker plans to sail the new raft from the Red Sea to Guatemala.

Reed Teaching Roster Complete

Reed Union School District trustees have completed the district's teaching staff roster for the 1959-60 year. They approved the final five teachers for employment.

New teachers hired were Mary A. Kelly, seventh grade; Elizabeth Moore, sixth grade; Jane Pennell, second grade; William Schisler, seventh and eighth grades; Chris Bogios, music teacher. Bogios is now serving as a substitute music teacher, replacing Leland Lincoln, who was granted an extension for next year of his leave of absence.

Trustees also renewed the inter-district agreement with Sausalito School District for five years to provide educational facilities for Angel Island children.

Trustees decided to house one Reed School class in an Hilarita administration building room next year to provide more library space at Reed School.

Mill Valley Trustees Count Absent Ballots

Mill Valley School District trustees made an official count Tuesday night of the 44 absentee ballots in the May 19 school election and counted 33 favoring the $600,000 proposed bond issue, with 11 opposed.

The measure had failed to carry by the necessary two-thirds majority and the absentee ballots did not change the outcome.

A fourth try for approval of the issue will be made in the fall, trustees decided Monday.

GAGAKU IN NEW YORK

Troupe From Japan In Unusual Ballet

By W. G. ROGERS

NEW YORK (P)—The oddest of all the dance spectacles which veteran balletomanes here have seen—and they know companies from Bali to Moscow—was presented this week by the Japanese Imperial Household troupe.

It was the company's formal American debut in City Center, where it appeared as guest of the New York City Ballet.

Wearing fantastic costumes and masks, the visitors imitated the crane, the warrior joining battle, and the Mongol hunting a snake, devouring it to cure his illness and then rejoicing at his recovery.

An orchestral interlude was played by a dozen kneeling men, also elaborately costumed. The entire performance was called "Gagaku," a millennium-old art form associated exclusively nowadays with court ceremony and deriving from imported as well as native musical forms.

This is essentially a religious expression, if not actually a kind of worship, and in Japan it is to be seen only in the royal household or at important shrines.

For a performance that was only a few blocks off Broadway, this had no theatrical appeal at all. The contrast with the American ballets on the same bill, among them such sterling secular works as "Serenade" and "Stars and Stripes," was even more drastic.

The dancers' movements are painfully slow—a hitch, a squat, a hop, a shuffle, a deliberate turn, an arm raised and later, much later, lowered. The music, matching it perfectly, is painfully thin, pure and also slow.

The ensemble is something the Western ear will take a heap of getting used to before it ever learns to enjoy it.

But this is not to deny the awesome solemnity of the visitors' curious offering. They pray, perhaps, rather than dance. If we can't like, at our first experience, something so alien, we can like very much the chance to see it.

The company will be here two weeks, and also tour to Washington, Boston, Seattle, San Francisco and Los Angeles. It was brought here under the sponsorship of the City Ballet and the Japan Society.

Land Owners Balk At Restrictions

Many property owners in the commercial and industrial areas of East San Rafael Assessment District want rezoning back to multiple residential. But they are balking at the restrictions suggested by City Planner Mitchell Baird to keep the area from becoming too dense with apartment units.

This was indicated Tuesday night before the San Rafael Planning Commission, which held the first public hearing on the proposed return to apartment rezoning.

Regular apartment zoning allows one unit for each 1,000 square feet of land. City Planner Baird suggested this would be too dense for the commercial and industrial area bounded by Bellam boulevard, Canal street and Belvedere street. He suggested a special multiple residential that would require 2,000 square feet of space per apartment unit.

Several property owners declared they feel that would be too restrictive and economically unsound.

The next public hearing on the rezoning is set for June 9. Originally, the East San Rafael Assessment District was planned as an industrial and commercial area. Property owners chipped in more than a million dollars to put in streets and utilities. But when the expected influx of industry failed to materialize, many started putting in apartments. This created the danger that the area would become a hodgepodge development, with apartments side by side with factories.

Raise Nixed, Sewell Takes Alaska Job

Arleigh Sewell, head of the Marin County data processing bureau, plans to fly to Alaska this weekend to take a similar job at $11,000 a year, as last-ditch efforts by his boss to get him a raise failed.

County Auditor Leon A. de Lisle Tuesday asked the board of supervisors to consider making Sewell's salary in the 1959-60 budget $8,520, a year compared with the $8,112 already earmarked in the budget.

Sewell previously had turned down a $10,000-a-year offer from Alaska, but when he was offered $11,000 indicated he would take it. De Lisle sought to get him a raise and keep him in Marin. The supervisors vetoed the idea, and de Lisle said today that Sewell is scheduled to start work in Alaska Monday.

Principal To Be Named For Bolinas School

Selection of a new principal of the Bolinas School to replace David Probert, resigned, will probably be made during the coming week end, Trustee Chairman Gene W. McDaniel said today.

He said that several candidates have been interviewed thus far and that announcement of the selection would probably be made Monday.

Hospital Files Fund Bid With State

An application for $1,486,374 in federal and state Hill-Burton Act funds has been filed by Marin County Hospital District with the state Bureau of Hospitals.

Administrators S. Ames Pence, who filed the application, said the funds are being sought to help finance a proposed 100-bed addition to Marin General Hospital.

Cost of the project is estimated at $2,484,321. Pence told the county hospital district board. The figure reflects an approximate 10 per cent increase over 1957 construction costs, he reported.

The district stands sixth on the priority list for allocation of 1959-60 Hill-Burton Act funds for California hospitals.

Approval of its application still would leave the district $997,948 short of the amount needed for construction. Raising this money would require voter approval of a bond issue for half the needed amount, $498,974, inasmuch as the Babcock Memorial Foundation has agreed to put up a sum equal to the bonds if such a measure passes.

Army Engineers Put Incinerator Into Operation

A new $130,000 debris incinerator at the Army Corps of Engineers' Sausalito headquarters went into operation this week, virtually eliminating one of the former major sources of smoke in the Marin County area, according to Col. John S. Harnett, district engineer.

"This incinerator embodies all latest innovations," Colonel Harnett said, "and has already handled up to its capacity of three tons of driftwood per hour."

Colonel Harnett noted that when the engineers contracted for construction of the incinerator, it was to comply "to a maximum extent with current regulations of the Bay Area Air Pollution Control Board."

The site of the incinerator in Sausalito is adjacent to a "debris pond" which receives accumulated floating debris gathered by patrol boats operated by the engineers throughout the Bay Area.

Colonel Harnett added that since air pollution orders against open burning are being more rigidly enforced, more debris is being surreptitiously thrown into the bay, increasing hazards to seaplanes and small boats—as well as increasing the load on the incinerator.

Samples of the exhaust gas from the incinerator have been taken by pollution district engineers for analysis, Colonel Harnett said. Results have not yet been announced.

The incinerator has been under construction for about seven months. It was built by Smith Engineering Co. and O. W. Karn of Los Angeles.

"This event," Mrs. Denk reported, "consists of a series of skits presented by local civic groups who are contributing their time and effort to this project."

The winner is a past president of the Girls' League at high school and was one of the Marin winners in a recent art contest conducted by The Emporium department store in San Francisco.
